

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1893.

NO. 51

Died.

In this city this morning at 10:15 o'clock, Mrs. Sarah Oldham. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her loss.

Medical Examiners.

There will be an extra session of the board of medical examiners of the state at the Hammocks, near Wilmington, on Tuesday, August 8th, at 10 o'clock a.m. Summer arrangements at the usual rates.

Receiver.

Upon application and recommendation in the usual form, Judge Conner, of the Superior Court, has appointed Mr Junius Davis receiver for the Bank of New Hanover. Beyond this there is no change in the affairs of the bank.

IOOF.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64 IOOF, tonight at "8 o'clock sharp." Work in the 2nd Degree, nomination of officers for the ensuing term etc. Members of the lodge earnestly requested to attend. Candidates for this degree will present themselves at 1/2 past 8 o'clock promptly. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

Knights of Pythias.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of North Carolina is in its 28th annual session at Greensboro. The report of the Grand Chancellor shows that the past year has been a most prosperous one. There are fifty-two lodges in the State and all except two are represented. The session promises to be one of the most interesting ever held in the State.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: On Friday: Fair; somewhat cooler in the west. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity On Friday: Fair. Local data for 24 hours ending at a.m. today: Maximum temperature, 89 minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.20.

Our Durham Friends.

The visit of the Sunday school of Trinity M E church, of Durham yesterday was a great social event. The day was spent at Brookside Park, and in visiting places of interest in the city. Every courtesy was shown them by our people and all left with the finest impressions of our beautiful capital. Such occasions tend to unite us more firmly in the bonds of friendship and we hope they may frequently occur.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father Mr. J L Johnson of Middle Creek Township Wake county, at 4 p.m. yesterday by Rev. J L Foster of this city, Mr. Geo. M McCullers and Miss Almira I Johnson. The attendants were as follows: Mr. K B Johnson and Miss Alice Utley, Mr. L O Leugee and Miss Irene Johnson, Mr. J D Ballentine and Miss Mary Banks, Mr. C H Stevenson and Miss Ella Johnson, Mr. J T Rowland and Miss Amorette Ballentine, Mr. T H Turner and Miss Willie McCullers. After the marriage ceremony the bride and groom with attendants and many friends repaired to the residence of the groom's mother Mrs. Willie McCullers, where a sumptuous repast was spread for the entertainment of all. Dinner was served to the attendants relatives and friends before the marriage. The best wishes of a host of friends attend the happy couple on life's real voyage.

Miss Mary L Allen, daughter of Mr Geo Allen, was married yesterday afternoon in the Presbyterian church at New Bern, to Dr W H Potter, of Boston, Mass.

Miss Minnie Bryan, daughter of Judge H R Bryan, was married yesterday in the Episcopal church in New Bern to H A London, Jr, of Pittsboro.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs Whiting Bros, who announce that they are selling goods at moderate prices. Go and see them. They will show you their stock in its prime and will make you such prices as are bound to please. All their goods are new and desirable and such as must command the patronage of the public.

Don't fail to go on the Asheville excursion on the 27th inst. The Vanderbilt mansion and other important scenery can all be seen for the small sum of $3.50 the round trip.

Raleigh boasts of having not had a single arrest of any kind in six days. A surprising record for a place of sixteen thousand inhabitants, says the Newbern Journal.

We are on the lookout for Mr Will Wynne to eclipse anything in the way of bicycle riding at the Greensboro celebration—provided he shall go.

It is reported in railroad circles that a through train will be put on soon between Greensboro and Morehead City.

See notice of Mary M. Christmas, executor of the will of T. B. Bridgers. Col Olds is in the western part of the state on a coaching expedition.

Hugh L. Peters, Esq. of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. A. Dughi who has been sick is improved.
