

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1893.

NO. 53

Be Ready.

For the great Asheville excursion which leaves here at 7 o'clock next Tuesday morning. It is an occasion that you cannot afford to miss.

June 24th.

"Ike Busbee" one of the old family hands brought to the city yesterday a potato of the early peabody variety (Btatas Convolvulus Rubicundus) June 23d.

This is as early as any potato Wake county has ever produced. 'Twas three inches in diameter and nearly six in inches length.

The Teachers Assembly.

A gentleman from Morehead says that the crowd is still increasing and the attendance at the Teachers Assembly will be the largest for years. Distinguished personages are present from all parts of this State, as well as from other portions of the Union. The oratorical discussion between young men from the different colleges, last night was an occasion of unusual interest. The speech of Gov. Carr was one of great information and elicited the highest praise.

Died.

Yesterday afternoon a gentleman named Mr Williams (Wilhelm), a Prussian by birth, died at his room in this city. For some time he has been in the employ of Maj R S Tucker in the capacity of gardener and horticulturist and was an excellent gentleman. He was about 65 years old and of the Jewish persuasion.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the rooms of Mr J W Brown, undertaker, and will be conducted in accordance with the Hebrew ritual.

One of the most distressing features of Mr Williams' death is that he was to have been married to a most estimable lady of this city next month.

Officers Elected.

The following are the officers chosen by the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias for the ensuing year:

- E A Ebert—Winston, Grand Chancellor.
- C E Holton—Greensboro, Grand Vice Chancellor.
- P R Law—Grand Prelate.
- W W Wilson—Raleigh, Grand Master.
- S B Bundy—Monroe, Grand Inter Guard.
- H T Hudson—Shelby, Grand Outer Guard.
- Jno. L Dudley—Grand K of R and S.
- Jno. Ward—Grand M of Ex.
- Sup Rep.—W S Cooke, Fayetteville, in place of W T Hollowell, Goldsboro.

A Sad Case.

A special received last night by the New and Observer conveys the sad intelligence of the death of Charles H Conrad, a prominent banker and tobaccoist of Danville, Va. The particulars of the case are of the most distressing character. It seems that at about 12 o'clock midnight, last Thursday, Mr Conrad boarded a train of the R & D Railroad for Richmond. He secured a berth in a sleeper. Yesterday morning his mangled body was found on the side of the track near Amelia courthouse, Va. He had not taken off his clothing which evidently shows that he had not occupied his berth. Whether he accidentally fell off the train or was thrown off is not known. The whole affair is a mystery.

Mr Conrad was a most estimable gentleman and widely known. About two years since he married Miss Kathryn Keogh, daughter of Col Thos B Keogh, of Greensboro, a most estimable lady. We deeply sympathize with all afflicted by the terrible bereavement.

See notice of auction sale of city property &c. by B F Montague mortgagee.

Be on Hand.

Next Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the Union Depot, and go on the excursion to Asheville. Best chance of the season. Only $3 50 the round trip.

Our Square.

It is much to be regretted that the funds at the disposal of Maj Roberts, keeper of the capitol and grounds are not adequate to put the place in such shape as it should be. There is no prettier square anywhere than ours, and a liberal amount should be allowed by the legislature for its adornment.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, followed on Sunday by increasing cloudiness and probably showers in west. Warmer Sunday a m.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Sunday: Fair, slightly warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at a m. today:

Maximum temperature, 80 minimum temperature 62; rainfall 0.0.

A man was up before the mayor of Greensboro a few days since who said he had not done a lick of work for five years. He is a hale, hearty fellow, and requires his children to work in a cotton factory to support him. Good specimen for a work house.

The tax lists at the court house will still list your polls and property if you call. There are many delinquents and the consequence will be trouble if it is not attended to. Call and list at once.

Arrangements are on foot already for the establishment of a new national bank at Wilmington. There is now only one bank in the city which is hardly enough for a place of that size.

A skating rink would add much to the attraction of Brookside Park. Perhaps the electric railway company might manage to fix up one. It would no doubt pay them to do so.

We notice that the trees in Moore square have grown much the past year or so. This could be made a most beautiful resort with but little cost.

There will be services at Brooklyn M E Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and also at night, at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. J. Barker.

Wolf, Wolf.

It often happens you hear people cry wolf, wolf when there is no wolf, but this time we really find the "nigger" in the wood pile, and just next Wednesday's sun dawns on Raleigh we will have our special sale of ladies straw hats at 5 cents each. This lot of hats are mostly lace, straw and Milan dress shapes and are worth ten times the price—5c each.

D T Swindell.

Fine watermelons and cantaloupes for sale at A Dughli's.

Prices Talk.

Good line of misses and ladies Oxford Ties.

Woolcott & Sons.

Will if We Hang for It.

Whenever the Queen of England gets an opportunity of buying wearing material, and especially hats at 5c each, she never fails to take advantage of the sale. Her hat she wore at the last meeting she had with the Duke of Edinburgh, was one bought at a special sale at 5 cents, on White Chapel street, in London. Now, ladies, we will have a special sale of ladies straw hats next Wednesday at 5 cents each. Most of these hats are nice lace straw and Milan straw, and are worth ten times the price—5c each next Wednesday.
