LEBIST DICY CROSSATION.

RALEIGH, JUNE 27, 1893.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Huske & Draper, dry goods merchants, Wilmington, N C, have failed.

The President has appointed T Kennedy Barnett, postmaster at Shelby.

The President has decided to visit Gray Gables about the middle of July.

John Fitzham, the Buffalo murder er, was electrocuted at Auburn, N Y, yesterday.

The governor of Illinois has pardoned Neebe, Fielden and Schab the anarchists.

An attempt was made to hold up the Missouri Kansas and Texas passenger train pear Stringtown, in Texas, yesterday. It failed.

The seven hundred mile cowboy race from a town in Nebraska to Chic go, which began last fuesday, will be participated in by twenty five riders, one of whom is Miss Hutchinson, of Denver, whom the Indians call "Lightning Squaw." She says she is going to win the race and will ride a horse that few men could manage and that would never let any other woman near him. The winner gets a thousand dollars, and those coming next in order valuable prizes. The conditions are that the same horse must be used for the whole distance, and that the horses must be in good condition on arrival.

A LITERARY SENSATION.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has certainly " broke loose !" The copywright on this most famous of American novels, by Mrs Stowe has recently expired, which frees its publication from the monopoly of the high priced publishers, and though in anticipation of this fact they have within a few months greatly reduced its price, now that it is really "unchained" the consequences are something surprist ing. John B. Alden, Publisher, of New York, issues several editions, selling them only DIRECT(not through agents or book sellers ;) one in good type, paper covers, for 5 cents, sent post paid, or the same bound in cloth for 10 cents with postage 7 cents extra; also an excellent large type edition, on fine paper, handsomely bound in cloth for the price of 25 cts, postage 10 cents. Surely a copy of "Uncle Tom's Catin" will soon be found in every home where it is not aiready. Mr Alden sends a 32 page pamphlet describing many of his publications free, or a catalogue of 128 pages of choice books, a veritable "literary gold mine" for book lovers, for 2 cents. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 57 Rose St, New York.

BURGLARS GOT EIGHT THOUS. AND DOLLARS.

J. Logan, an eccentric cld bachelor living a few miles west of Greenville, Pa, was robbed of $8,000. He had sold his farm some time ago but was afraid to trust the banks with the money. He carried it with him wherever he went.

During the night three masked men broke into his house and after a short struggle secured the money and made their escape. This was all the property that Mr Logan had and leaves him destitute.

SHE PRODUCED HER RHYME

There is a five year old maidea in Pittsburg wno will certainly make a poet when she is a few years older.

Tiring of her dolls and building blocks, she demanded a new game.

" Vell," said mamma, "let's play making rhymes."

"All wight," replied the child. "I'll make the first," mamma went

"'My little darling, I love you, Because your pretty eyes are blue.

"Now make your chyme."

Frances pondered a few seconds, and then exclaimed: "'Mamma, I love you,' a girlie said,

'Just because your hair's so red.'

A TRAIN SAVED BY A WOMAN.

What might have been a most disastrone wreck on the Illinois Central Railroad was prevented by a woman. The New Orleans limited passenger train, bound for Chicago with eight loaded coaches, when near Rantoul, running at a high speed, was flagged by a woman.

As soon as the train came to a standstill the crew was informed that a short distance ahead of them a trestle had burned out. The passengers made up a handsome purse of money and presented it to the women.

EXPERIENCE IN A COFFIN.

Judge W H Poynter of Oregor, Mo. tells in substance the following re' markable experience: He was declared dead by the attending physicians and was laid out. He was dressed in his Sunday clothes, had his hair combed and was laid out in the coffin. He knew what was going on, but did not have the power to speak. He says he felt very funny when other people pulled on his "pants" for him, tied his necktie and brushed his whiskers, but even if he had had the power to laugh he was too badly scared, so he laid there like a man in a nightmare and yelled all to himself. When he was laid in the coffin the undertaker began to arrange the glass in its groove, he tried to kick, but couldn't. But just as it was screwed down the undertaker noticed a finger move, and soon it was removed he sat bolt upright, but soon fell back exhaused. The crisis had been passed, however he regained his health.
