

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1893.

NO. 56

CITY IN BRIEF.

Hon John Nichols has arrived here from Washington.

The garden at the Insane asylum is now one of the finest in the State.

Shipments of cultivated blackberries are being made from here daily.

The State had $15,000 on deposit in the wrecked bank of New Hanover.

Congressman John A. Henderson is a delegate to the diocesan convention.

Mr. Isaac Wilder, of Birmingham, Ala., formerly of Raleigh, is in the city on a visit to relatives.

See notice of sale of personal property by Mary M Christmas executrix, &c.

Already the next senatorship looming up. The legislature of 1895 will be a most important body.

Mr J A Higge and Mr Claude Sherwood have gone to the Hickory Nut Gap.

Wesley Stewart, of Panther Branch township, brought in two cotton blooms this morning which entitles him to a free ticket to Norfolk.

Electric wires have been connected with the clock at the passenger depot so as to give exact Washington time.

It is stated on good authority that the bank of New Hanover will pay depositors 50 to 60 cents on the dollar and that the stockholders will get nothing.

The Raleigh postoffice has just been rated. The salary is $3,700. This office handles $400,000 annually as a depository. The annual receipts from stamp sales and rent of boxes are $28,500. Postmaster Shaffer was appointed four years ago Tuesday.

Governor Carr and Capt J B Burwell, president of the board of directors of the Insane asylum, today inspected the engines, &c, at the institution and see what additional machinery is needed. The tests of the electric lights are yet in progress. Mr Huff is making these tests.

The committee on parks appears to have gone into the compost business, any one would think after a look at the northeast corner of Nash square. Piles of street sweepings, mixed with old paper, iron and tin, are heaped there. The park by the way too is most uninviting now, and for months has had no attention whatever.

Some neat cottages are in course of construction on the site of the old cottage hotel. Mr. Rand is building a handsome residence on Fayetteville street near the Centennial school. Mr. Thomas B. Crowder is remodeling the old Henry house on Fayetteville street. Mr. T. L. Eberhardt has nearly completed a pretty cottage on north Wilmington street, near the cotton platform. Mr. Louis Mahler is building an attractive residence corner South Salisbury and West Carr streets, on the site of the old street car stables.

A Very Unfortunate Affair.

About 8 o'clock yesterday evening at the playground of the Raleigh Male Academy Percy Whitaker, a young son of Hon Spier Whitaker, and Alex B Stronach Jr., had a fight which resulted in the use of a knife by Stronach and the painful wounding of young Whitaker. There have been all sorts of versions of the unfortunate affair and exaggerations of the dangerous condition of the injured boy. It appears that the fight was the result of a boys feud and that some other boys urged on the combatants, thinking it would be only a fistfight. Young Whitaker was cut in five places, the worst injury being under the left lung. Last night fatal results were at one time feared, but today there was marked improvement. The wounded boy is at the home of Capt C B Denson and is given every attention. The affair was town-talk today and great sympathy is expressed for the families.

Death of a Faithful Employee.

Yesterday morning Ephraim Johnson, colored, who for 18 years had been a driver in the employ of Messrs W O & A B Stronach, died of consumption, after six months illness. He was about 60 years of age and was always faithful in the discharge of every duty to his employers. They appreciate his honorable services so much that the store will be closed at 6 o'clock this afternoon and they will attend the funeral which will be held from the Christian church.

Kicked to Death.

The following is from the Durham Sun: Mr. Wesley Atwater, a brother of Matthew Atwater, had been to the cemetery, engaged in putting up a monument over the grave of one of his brothers. He started back home by himself in a wagon drawn by two mules. He wore a large straw hat, which blew off his head and fell upon the double tree. In reaching for it Mr Atwater lost his balance and fell forward. The mules began to kick and before he could extricate himself he was kicked in a fearful and fatal manner over the front of his body and face. He lived only long enough to tell how the affair occurred.

Mr. Atwater was between 65 and 70 years of age, and leaves a wife to mourn his loss. He was well acquainted in Durham, and has some relatives here, who are deeply grieved over his sad misfortune.

The Episcopal Diocesan Convention.

This convention assembled yesterday. Bishop Lyman presides. Rev Julian E Ingle and Mr G C Lambare secretaries. The interest in the election of an assistant bishop is very great. Mr H A London, a lay delegate, introduced a resolution providing for an amendment to the canon regarding elections so that the election of bishop shall be by concurrent vote. Now the clergy nominate and then submit to the laity who vote by parishes.

The following were placed in nomination: Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N C, by Jarvis Buxton; J B Cheshire, Jr, of Charlotte, by F J Murdock; R N T George, of Newbern, by W S Bynum; F J Murdock, of Salisbury, by J B Cheshire, Jr; M M Marshall, of Raleigh, by R B Sutton, R S Barrett, of Atlanta, by C J Wingate.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Cheshire 14, Murdock 13, Barrett 9, Harding 2, George 2, Marshall 2. Only 43 votes were cast but 29 are necessary to a choice. Ballot after ballot was taken, Murdock Cheshire and Barrett always leading strongly.

The twenty-fourth ballot was taken at 11:30 last night and resulted as follows: Murdock 15, Barrett 15, Cheshire 13. The convention then took a recess until 10 o'clock today.

Yesterday afternoon's proceedings were held with closed doors, but at the night session the doors were open to the public.

The convention began balloting at 1 o'clock this morning. The first ballot was as follows: Murdock 23, Barrett 13, Cheshire 6. Up to noon the balloting went on, with no result. At that time Dr Murdock received 26 votes, and 15 were cast for Rev Dr Lloyd, of Norfolk.

SORRY SHE CAN'T GO TO JAIL.

"Can't I go to prison in his place?" pathetically pleaded Mrs John D Lucca, an Italian, whose husband Judge Bregy, of Philadelphia, had sent to prison for three months as a speak easy proprietor. The court had declined to release the man at Mrs Lucca's request, when the woman appeared in court with five little tots tugging at her apron strings. The Judge then told her she couldn't go to prison in Lucca's stead, nor even as his companion in misery, and she went out weeping.
