

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1893.

NO. 57

CITY IN BRIEF.

The matrimonial market is looking up some.

Mr Henry Young came up from Morehead yesterday afternoon.

But very few prisoners are now being brought to the penitentiary.

Mr and Mrs Walter Woolcott returned from Morehead yesterday afternoon.

Extra efforts will be put forth to increase the attendance at Trinity college the coming session to 250.

We learn that the crowd on the Asheville excursion train increased very much after passing Durham.

The position of Maj W W Vass with the Seaboard Air Line hereafter, will be that of secretary of the R & G Railroad.

It is rare now that an application for back direct taxes, is presented. There will be certainly a considerable fund left over.

There is no truer maxim than that trouble all comes together. The cutting of Tuesday evening and the suicide today, are evidences of it.

The fruit men say that the cool weather is good for fruit. It rather retards the ripening so the shipments may be more gradual and the loss by rot not so great.

The books for listing taxes will only be kept open for a day or so longer. It would be well for all who have not done so to look after it at once. It is indictable to fail to list property or polls.

A gentleman residing in the country who is engaged in truck farming, says he realized about $300 on an acre of strawberries this year. Can any of our cotton planters begin to match this.

Let us all boom up the state fair. Secretary Ayer says he proposes to make it one of the best exhibitions yet held in the state. To do this, however, he must have the active cooperation of all our people.

The sewing school under the management of Miss M V Marsh will be opened at the Centennial grade school building on Tuesday, July 4th, at 9 a m. The session last two months and the children will have instruction for three hours daily. A charge of 20 cents a month will be made to pay for the material used.

All over the city can be seen marks of improvement. New houses are going up and old ones are being renovated. Raleigh makes no particular fuss about it, but the boom is a steady one. Our population, too, is a homogeneous one. Our people are conservative. They make up their minds, and then act.

It is hoped that the close of the month of June will bring financial relief to a certain extent. On the 1st of July an immense sum of money will be distributed throughout the country from interest on government bonds, corporation dividends, &c. This may cause a temporary aid and tide over matters until congress meets.

The question—"Does farming pay"—is going the rounds of the press extensively, and all sorts of answers are given. The most sensible we have seen is, that farming does pay, provided the farmer raises enough to eat. But when the farmer plants all cotton and sells it at ruinous prices to purchase Baltimore bulk meat, then farming does certainly not pay.

Master Gaither Hall Whiting left this morning on a visit to his cousin in the western part of the state. A peep in his lunch basket which, by the way, was a 10 pound grape basket, disclosed 3 green apples, a brass cannon, a lasso, 5 minnie balls picked up at Pine Forest vineyard, a bundle of fish hooks, a piece of snake root, 12 rusty nails of all sizes, an old case knife and other articles too numerous to mention here, except that of a picture of his best girl, taken along, no doubt to scare off flies with.

Returns.

The law requires the cashiers of the different banks of the state to make returns to the state treasurer within thirty days after the first day of July, of the value of shares of stock of their respective banks.

Entertainment.

The colored people of the city are making preparations for a grand entertainment to be given at Stronach's warehouse on July 12th. The proceeds will be devoted to the colored orphan asylum. A committee has been appointed to solicit donations, and we hope that the public will respond liberally.

A Fine Show.

When the Chicago exposition is over, most, or all of the exhibits from North Carolina are to be returned to the State. This will, in our opinion, necessitate the procurement of more room than can be spared in the museum for their reception. It would be well enough for those having the matter in charge to look after this. The time is not distant when the museum of North Carolina will be a most important branch, and it should be fostered to the greatest possible extent.

Our City Cemetery.

The condition of this resting place of so many of our lamented dead, is under as good keeping perhaps as the meagre allowance will allow, but at the same time, we must think it should receive more attention than it does at the hands of our city authorities. There are many graves that should be worked over, and other work which would tend to beautify the place. Of course the sexton does the best he can under the circumstances, but with a small increase of allowance much progress can be made. It is a sacred spot to many of our people and should receive reverent care.

Barbecue and Brunswick Stew.

On the 4th of July the church improvement society will furnish the public an excellent dinner at McKimnor & Moseley's old stand consisting of brunschwic stew, barbecued pig, barbecued chicken, ham bread, butter, pickles, sauces, crisp cucumbers and good cold buttermilk for the small sum of 50 cents, and for 15 cents extra cream and cake will be served. All who wish a first class dinner of the above named delicacies will do well to call between the hours of 12 m and 11 p m.

This barbecue and brunschwic stew will be prepared by skilled hands and will please all.

The ladies are requested to send in their contributions between the hours of 8 and 11 a m if possible. A committee will be on hand who hopes to have as many other ladies to assist as can arrange to do so.

A picture of the Rev L H Gibbons, of the North Carolina conference is to be added to the portrait gallery of Trinity College. The collection is getting to an unusually interesting one.

For Rent.
