Shocking Snicide.

Our people were greatly shocked this morning by the announcement that the wife of our well known fellow citizen, Mr A W Fraps had com. mitted suicide. Mrs Fraps had been in rather delicate health for some time past, which, to a considerable extent, had impaired her mind. About 8 o'clock this morning ste arose from her bed and procured a raizor belonging to one of her sons She again went to bed and deliberately cut her throat completely sovering the jugular vain. A short time after a son discoverd her. Death must have been almost instantaneous She wee 52 years old, and a lady of many estimable traits of charc'e. The utmost sympathy is expressed on all sides for the bereaved husband and family.

The work of macadamizing the Fayetteville road in this township is now nearly completed. The convict force has taken a great deal of stone out of the quarry near the water. work's pump house. The work is now in progress this side of Rocky branch.

Of course it is pretty well understood now that we are to have no 4th of July celebration in Raleigh. Such being the case there will no doubt be a considerable exodus to the fishing places and other resorts.

The matter of an injunction and a receiver in the case of Big Falls Cotton Mills, came up before Judge Whitaker today. Several prominent legal gentlemen from a distance are in attendance.

The citizens of Greensboro are preparing to throw open their houses to visitors on the 4th of July. It will be an interesting occasion from every point of view.

The continued cool weather is somewhat against the ripening of melons. They will be on hand no doubt next week of the "native growth."

We are glad to learn that the con dition of Mr Percy Whitaker contintinues to improve. It is thought that not any serious results will fol-

We hear loud complaints about the trash being deposited in Nash square. It is claimed to be a real nuisance to those in the immediate vicinity.

It is conceded that the present session of the Teachers Assembly, at Morehead, has been the most successful in its history.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad has arranged for rates at two cents a mile for 4th of July trips.

The next annual convention of the Episcopal diocese will be held at Winston, on the 16th of May 1894.

All the bunting, decorations &c. are already on the Guilford Battle Ground, ready for celebration. Durham claims to have seventeen new residences in course of erection near the Pearl Cotton Factory. Lawn parties are getting popular these delightful nights. The board of county commissioners wil meet next Monaay. The time for listing city taxes is out tomorrow. Hurry up.

Durham is still bragging on Brook side park,

TRIED WHEN NOT IN COURT.

Jacob Wiseman, who is said to be at the World's Fair, has just been convicted at Levenworth, Kan., of selling liquor in violation of the Kansas statutes, though he was not in court when he was "tried." When the case was called for trial Judge and Populists last fall, said Wiseman was wilfully absent and declared his bail bond forfeited. The Judge, on application of County Attorney Wheat ther directed that the trial be proceeded with the same as if the defendant were in court.
