RALEIGH, FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1893.

NO. 58

CITY IN BRIEF.

Half the year gone.
Grass is being cut in Nash square.
Col Paul B Means, of Cabarrus, is in the city.
The street car track near St Mary's is being leveled.

The departments at the capitol were barren of news today.

We are sorry to hear that the grape crop continues to show signs of rot.

The days will not materially lessen in length for some time yet to come.

Tony Rogers, who was to have been hung at Rockingham soon, has died.

No seizures have been made by revenue officials in this district, for several weeks.

Old bonds for exchange have about stopped coming in at the state treasury department.

It is now estimated that work will commence on the Baptist Female College in this city, next year.

The condition of young Percy Whitaker is about the same as yesterday, with some tendency to improvement.

The merchants of Burlington, Alamance county, will celebrate the 4th of July, by greasy pole climbing, &c.

The portrait of the late Governor Henry T. Clarke, now adorns the Executive office. It is a most excellent likeness.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of "The Lyon Racket Store" which contains some free and most excellent advice.

Next Tuesday will be a go-as-you-please day. There being no public celebration, all hands can celebrate on their own hooks.

Several legal gentlemen from Wilmington, who have been here for a day or so in connection with the bank of New Hanover county, left for their home today.

Don't forget that the usual star premium of $50 in gold is offered for the best exhibit at our State Fair by a lady resident of North Carolina, with a second premium of $20.

Mrs Wm M Brown, Sr, Mrs Lovie Young and Mrs Mary Redford returned to the city yesterday afternoon from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Chatham county.

The shipments of truck from New Bern and vicinity amounted to $200,000. This would look like the trucking business is one of immense profit in the eastern section of North Carolina.

Don't forget the barbecue and other nice things at McKimmon & Moseley's old stand, Fayetteville street, on the 4th of July. It will be a fine occasion to enjoy the "glorious fourth."

Gov Carr seems to be perfectly happy when he meets his friends and can talk about the yeomanry of the country. The governor is wedded to the farming industry, and he knows a thing or two about it, and no mistake.

Cards are out for the marriage of Judge E T Boykin, of the Superior Court, to Miss Ada, daughter of Mr and Mrs B F Rogers, of Concord. The ceremony will be performed in St. John's Episcopal church, Wednesday evening, July 12th, at 7 o'clock.

We invite the special attention of the public to the advertisement of Miss Maggie Reese, announcing a midsummer clearing sale. This is a splendid opportunity for our ladies and should not be overlooked. Don't fail to call at 114 Fayetteville street, next to F A Watson's art store.

The North Carolina Antiquity society continue to receive relics from various parts of the State. A good nucleus will soon be on hand. There are no doubt many valuable things in the hands of our people which would prove of great interest, and are of no particular value to the owners. They should be forwarded.

Conference at the Tabernacle.

The regular monthly conference of the Baptist Tabernacle membership takes place tonight beginning at 8:15 o'clock. We are requested to urge all the male members of the church to be present as business of very great importance will be presented.

Tournament.

The fifth annual convention and tournament of the North Carolina State Fireman Association will be held in Wilmington on the 26th, 27th and 28th of July. The prizes offered will be larger than ever before and the subjects coming before the convention will be of the utmost importance to the firemen of the State. Let our Raleigh boys be on hand.

From Trinity Sunday School, Durham.

The following letter explains itself:
DURHAM, N C, June 29th, 1893.
Mr N B Broughton, Chairman, Raleigh, N C:

Dear Sir and Bro:—At the session of Trinity Sunday school, held on last Sunday morning, as secretary I was instructed by a unanimous vote to return to you and your committee our sincere and heartfelt thanks for your personal kindness and generous hospitality shown us while in your city. Rest assured it was appreciated and enjoyed to the fullest extent. The day will ever be remembered as one of the most pleasant and enjoyable ever spent on our annual excursion. Very truly,
JAS GATTIS, Secretary.

The Bank of New Hanover.

Much interest was centered yesterday in the matter of an application for a receiver for the Bank of New Hanover, which was heard, at chambers before Judge Conner in this city. The application was made by State Treasurer Tate, the act of Assembly requiring the State Treasurer to take such action in the case of failed banks. Application was resisted and argument was heard in the library of the Supreme Court room commencing at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 8 o'clock the case was adjourned, Judge Conner stating that at 10 o'clock he would render an opinion at the office of Mr F H Busbee. The decision is that Mr James A Leak be appointed receiver for the bank of Wadesboro, and that the appointment of an additional receiver for the Bank of New Hanover was denied. Mr Julius Davis retaining the position of receiver to which he had heretofore been appointed.

Phalanx Lodge, No 34, K P, will meet tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Regular election of officers. Prompt attendance requested. A fine street lamp has been put in front of the lodge room.
C F LUMSDEN, O C.

We hear that the electric plant at the Insane Asylum has been thoroughly examined, and pronounced a perfect success. It will prove a most valuable improvement to the institution.

The cotton compress is doing only occasional duty now.
