VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1893.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Travel continues heavy over all the

We enter upon the last six months of 1893.

The heavy dews in the morning are much like August.

Mr John Ellis is very sick at the residence of his father.

Trade is rather dull today. Hot weather and scarcity of money.

The Teachers Assembly at Morehead, will soon come to a close.

The usual number of visitors to the city for Saturday were missed today. Miss Belvia Harrison, of Salisbury, is in the city visiting Miss Susie Mabry.

The bath house at Pullen park is being well patronized these warm evenings.

Mr J H Bobbitt and wife and Dr W H Bobbitt returned from Morehead yesterday.

The flag of the old Guilford Guard will be on exhibition at the Battle Ground on the 4th of July.

The News and Observer and the State Chronicle made its appearance in a consolidated form today.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Norris' Dry Goods Store. Heavy reductions in hosiery, shoes, slippers &c.

Our business men unanimously agree that the call of the president for a session of congress in August, was a decided move in the right direction.

Mr Marsden Bellamy, Supreme Dic tator of the Knights of Honor, has this week signed checks for more than $2,000,000 for the payment of benefits to the widows and orphans of mem-

"he Locomotive Board of Engi neers which met in this city last injunction and receivers in the case Thursday passed resolutions of of Big Falls Cotton Mills came up bethanks to Gov. Carr for the appoint ment of B R Lacy as commissioner of day. It was to have been tried be-Labor Statistics.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr R M Brown, of Hayr case was transferred to Judge Winswood, Chatham county, who offers ton at Oxford. There are a large for sale a very desirable residence, number of lawyers in attendance The location is fine and healthy, and parties desiring to purchase will find it a chance not often met with Rev J B Hurley, the loved and highly esteemed pastor of Central M E church, returned home today from a two week's visit and rest among relatives and friends in the western part of the state. He will fill his pulpit tomorrow at both morning and evening services.

The Durham Sun of yesterday says that several of the young men gave a lawn party Thursday evening at the residence of Mr J T Womble, on Lib erty street, in honor of Miss Ida Womble, of Raleigh. It was an exceedingly pleasant affair, and seven or eight couples participated. Ices and cake were served during the

We invite attention to the advertisement of John Y MacRaeannounc ing all the first class varieties of fresh turnip seed. He has also always in stock the purest drugs of all kinds. "Mac" never gets left, and he can always be found ready and anxious to serve the public. Call and see him at corner Wilmington, Martin and Market streets.

There will be a slight change in the schedule of the fast train, souths bound, on the Seaboard Air Line to. morrow. This train formerly No 117 will hereafter be known as No 127 the "Atlanta Special" and will arrive at Raleigh, at 8 p m., and leave at 8:15 p m. instead of 8:30 p m. as heretofore. There will be no changes in schedule of other trains. The fast train leaving Raleigh at 6:30 am arrives at Washington at 3:40 p m make ing close connection with the famous congressional limited, arriving Bala timore: 4.57 p m. Philadelphia 7:18 New York 9:05 p m.

Elected.

The following have been elected by the Teachers Assembly at Morehead: President-F P Hobgood, Oxford.

Superintendent - Alex Graham. Charlotte.

Secretary and Tressurer -E G Harreli, Raleigh.

Look Out.

James Freeman colored was up before H H Roberts J P., for wilfully failing to list his taxes for the year

This is a warning to those who have failed to list as the law requires. See section 29 chapter 826 laws of 1891. These are several hundred able bodied men in Wake county-according to the registration books-that do not list or pay one cent of tax.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Showers, but probably fair during greater portion of Sunday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vi-

On Sunday: Showers stationary temperature. Local data for 24 hours ending at a

Maximum temperature, 83 minimum temperature 66; rainfall

Good News.

We are glad to be able to say that there will be no diminution in the force at the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad shops in this city, and, that perhaps on the contrary the number of employes may be increased. This will be indeed good news, not only to the parties directly interested but to all our people. The removal of the shors from Raleigh, or even any con siderable decrease of the force, would work much disadvantage all around.

Important Case.

The case of an application for an fore Judge Winston at Oxford yester fore Judge Whitaker in Raleigh, but owing to the injuries of his son, the from various sections.

Greensboro and Winston will cross bats on July 8th.
