

Officers.
Last night the semi annual election of officers of Phalanx Lodge, No 34, K of P, took place. The following were elected:
M of W—Frank Ward.
C O—S F Telfair.
V C—F P Haywood Jr.
P—Millard Mial.
M of A—Dr J M Ayer.

Battle Ground Items.
T E Moore, of Mt Airy, sends to the Guilford Battle Ground a powder horn made in 1783.
A brass spectacle case made before the revolutionary war is presented by Mrs Robert Lindsey, of Greensboro.
A large number of tents have been raised upon the grounds for protection from the heat and rain.
All the relics have been placed in the glass cases where they can be easily seen by the people.

Out of It.
The Fayetteville Light Infantry is no longer in the State Guard. An order has been issued by the Inspector General as follows: "The Fayetteville Light Infantry having failed to parade for annual inspection by the Inspector General, as required by law, is on recommendation dropped from the State Guard. Its annual appropriation is forfeited, and all property owned by it is to be turned over to the Quarter Master General."

High Compliment.
The following from a gentleman in the western part of the state speaks for itself:

July 29, 1893.
Mr A Dughi, Raleigh, N C:
Dear Sir—Please send me on Thursday 25 gallons of your best and fine ice cream and 100 lbs best and fancy cakes. Be sure to send on the above date.

This is for a wedding party. I should have gotten married last week, as I wrote to you before, but on account of your sickness I postponed until next Friday. I wish to buy the ice cream and cakes from you, but whether you are well or not, Friday is my day. Answer

At St. Paul A. M. E. church, the reports show that $1,784 98 have been raised this conference year, beginning Dec. 1892. The above amount was raised from the members and friends in the church. We return them our thanks. Bricks are being delivered at the church and we will resume work soon. The church when completed will add to the beauty of our city. At a meeting last Monday night, Jan. 26th, the pastor R H W Leak, Stewart Ellison and Seth Nowell were constituted a committee to solicit aid from our white friends, and as we have not called on them in several years we hope they will not turn the committee away empty handed.

THE PASTOR.
Fetter's Southern Magazine, for July, published at Louisville, Kentucky, is on our table and as usual contains some very fine reading matter. Any one wishing to subscribe for a good southern magazine would do well to send on and get Fetter's Southern Magazine, Louisville, Ky.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening, resolutions were adopted calling on the President of the United States to call an extra session of Congress. Appropriate remarks were made by S A Ashe, W J Peele and A A Thompson.

We have received the July number of the Cosmopolitan. It is a splendid number, beautifully illustrated and contains most excellent and interesting articles. There is no better magazine on the continent. Only 12 cents per month.

A considerable party of our people expect to attend the Guilford Battle Ground celebration. They may be certain of a cordial welcome in the "City of Flowers" There are no more hospitable people on the continent.

Tom Hill, the faithful old colored servant who for thirty years has been waiter at the R and G Railroad office, will probably remain in Raleigh. "Tom" ought to be let down with a life pension.

Guilford college will open August 29d.
