VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, JULY 3, 1893.

NO. 60

CITY IN BRIEF.

Dust on the roads is fearful.
About the hottest of the season.
All quiet in department circles today.
Bishop and Mrs Lyman have gone to Morehead.
There is a considerable exodus to Morehead City.
Barbecue will be the order of the day tomorrow.
Several fishing parties are organizing for tomorrow.
Some of our merchants are already preparing to go north.
After the Fourth comes the State Guard Encampment.
Regular monthly meeting Rescue Fire company tonight.
The average urchin can take it out tomorrow in pop crackers.
Several of our families will leave for summer resorts this week.
The revenue receipts in this district for the month of June were $79,423.13.
There is a noticeable failure of the fig crop all throughout this section.
Mrs Samuel Smith has returned to the city from a pleasant trip to Hillsboro.
The clock at the union depot is regulated at 12 o'clock each day by electricity.
The county commissioners were in session today, transacting the usual routine business.
It is requested that all contributions for the barbecue be sent in by 11 o'clock tomorrow.
In the case of the Big Falls cotton mills, tried at Oxford, Judge Winston appointed Messrs Jacob A Long and Brevard Springs receivers.
The 3d and 4th regiments of the State Guard will encamp at Charlotte August 14th to 21st. There will also be companies from South Carolina and Georgia.
Tomorrow is the anniversary of our national declaration of independence. In consequence of this there will be no paper issued from this office until Wednesday afternoon next.
The attention of mothers, fathers and the boys are specially directed to the advertisement of the Rosenthal Clothing Company. Some astounding reductions are announced. 'Dave' is still at the helm. Call and he will tell you all about it.
Mr. Josephus Daniels arrived in the city from Washington, D. C., last Saturday night being called here by a telegram announcing the extreme illness of his little daughter, who we extremely regret to state died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
Messrs. Johnson & Barber are holding the fort in the furniture business and are offering such inducements as cannot be overlooked. A call at their immense establishment on East Martin between Wilmington and Mount streets will prove the assertion.
Don't fail in your rounds to call at the furniture emporium of Messrs. Royall & Boyden on East Martin St, opposite the Postal telegraph office where can be seen one of the finest and most select stocks of everything in the furniture line to be found in the city.
The attention of the public is specially called to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell in this issue. These gentlemen are constantly receiving new goods in their line. The latest being antique oak tables which they are offering to the public at the unprecedented low price of $1. This is, of course, a mere normal price, as it is far below their worth. They have also a line of hall racks which they are presenting at the lowest prices. There is certainly no place in Raleigh, or North Carolina, at which better bargains in the furniture line can be secured. Call and see them. Remember the locality on Exchange Place, south side of Market Square. You can get baby carriages at cost. Don't forget this.

Plenty nice bananas at A Dughi's.

Oranges and lemons at A Dughi's.

The center of attraction for tomorrow, the 4th, will be East Raleigh. There is talk of barbecue being plentiful, with the great Wake county snake charmer giving exhibits of his two deadly pets—one a water moccasin and the other a striped adder which he uses as a necktie. Then there will be stationed the steam riding gallery, with its merry making proclivities; then a wind up of fire works, base ball, foot racing and fun for every one. Good order will be kept by officers of the law.

The best 10c black ribbed hose always on hand at Woolcott & Sons.

Prices Talk.

Ours have an emphatic ring that is convincing. No argument is necessary. In the shoes that settles it. The prettiest shoes in the market.
