

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1893.

NO. 64

CITY IN BRIEF.

President Winston, of the University, is in the city.

The festive mosquito has made its appearance in earnest.

Col A C Davis, of the Davis Military School, is at the Yarboro.

Large crowds went out to the bathing pool at Pullen park last night.

The Dukes of Durham owned about $40,000 in the closed bank at Winston.

The health of the inmates at the soldiers home is said to be unusually good.

We regret to learn that Mr O W Young has a child very sick with scarlet fever.

The Carolina Central Railroad men have broken up in Wilmington and removed to this city.

Miss Catherine Litchford returned home yesterday from Littleton where she has been on a visit of several weeks.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Norris Dry Goods Store in this issue. Call and see the admirable stock.

A light shower this afternoon brought down the thermometer a little. It is still warm enough, however, for the average citizen.

The tax listing books of the county will close next Monday. All who have not listed may find themselves indicted. THE VISITOR has given frequent warnings.

"Peg Leg" Williams is again in the state, but he is not now in the exodus business. He is working up a world's fair boom for the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad.

The next thing in order is the state fair, and all our people should unite in making it a grand success. Secretary Ayer reports matters as progressing most satisfactory.

The market is most abundantly supplied with all the vegetables and fruits in season. Watermelons have commenced to come in freely but are rather too high at present for the ordinary pocket.

The colored people had a most enjoyable dance last night at the pavilion in Pullen Park. The entertainment was kept up until a late hour, much to the advantage of the street car company.

The Washington D. C. Post announces the arrival of "Buck" Jones in that city, and gives him a most flattering notice. "Buck" will depart for the country of the "heathen Chinese" during the present month.

There is no place in our city that shows more improvement in all its surroundings than in the neighborhood of the old North Carolina depot. Paint, repairs, and general brushing up has much changed the locality.

Chief of Police Heatt desires information from any person who lost a gold ring marked "J O W" to "E O B" January 20th 1893, or a gold bangle marked "I H G." or a gold badge engraved on it "N and K 1887". Please notify at once.

The sweethearts and beaux of the city these pleasant nights frequent the parks in the most loving manner. Billing and cooling are all the order, and the young folks seem contented with themselves and all the world. This is as it should be the world over.

Adjutant General Cameron is fully determined that the coming encampment of the State Guard shall not be behind any that has preceded it in usefulness to the guard and to the state. The appropriation is small but General Cameron will make the best of it.

Died.

Mr J M Markham, of Durham, aged 77 died last Thursday evening. Mr Markham was well known in Wake county where he had many warm friends.

Be Careful.

We cannot too earnestly impress upon parents the necessity of exercising all possible caution with their little ones this extremely hot weather. We have several cases of scarlet fever reported in the city, and we should be very cautious to do all in our power to prevent its spread. This can be done by keeping the little ones in proper bounds, and paying regard to sanitary regulations. Our city has been peculiarly fortunate in being free of contagious diseases, and our utmost endeavors should be used to keep it so.

Raleigh Council, 551, R A, will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Xcursion! Xcursion! Xcursion!
