VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1893.

NO. 66

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mercury again on the rise. The first of the tobacco crop of 1893 has been sold in Durham.

Several houses in Durham county were struck by lightning last Saturday.

Percy Whitaker, the lad who was injured some time since, is rapidly convalescing.

Let there be a full attendance at the meeting of the chamber of commerce tonight.

The marriage license business is at a stand still, and Millard Mial is not as happy as he might be.

A fine portrait of Judge Schenck has been placed in the museum of the Guilford Battle Ground.

Collector Hutchings has gotten into business harness in good fashion. He looks like he is used to the business.

Rev L L Nash, of Wilmington, preached in the Main Street M E church, at Durham, last Sunday night.

The bathing pools at Pullen and Brookside parks are now the centre of attraction in the afternoon and nights.

Cannot some one who is cognizant of the situation give us some information as to the status of the Baptist female college?

We always take it as a favor if persons who fail to receive their paper will let us know. We will apply the remedy in all cases.

In our notice of yesterday we omitted to state that Messrs Thomas & Maxwell are now offering their beautiful baby carriages at cost.

We regret to hear that our former well known citizen, Mr Jordan Womble, is quite sick at the residence of his son in law, Mr James W Blackwell, in Durham.

A number of lawyers from the Wilmington section of the state arrived in the city today to attend the case of the Bank of New Hanover, which comes up this evening.

The mountains and sea shore resorts are filling up rapidly. It is not expected that the Columbian Exposition will prove of much injury to our home pleasure places.

We are glad to learn that our superintendent of health is exercising all the precaution possible to prevent the spread of disease. Carry out his instructions and we have no fears.

Don't let the station house question go by default. Aritate and work. That is the way to get it. Where there is a will there is a way, even to build a station house suitable for mortals to breathe in.

Judge Boykin has given a peremptory order on Judge Bennett to turn over the affairs of the Wadesboro branch of the Bank of New Hanover to Mr Leak, who was appointed receiver by Judge Connor.

Don't fail when you want anything in the furniture line to call on Messrs Barber & Johnson, East Martin, between Wilmington and Blount streets. They have a splendid selection at the most reasonable rates.

Some vandal deliberately cut a large block out of a fine sugar maple tree on Blount street, in rear of Dr Hogg's. This is outrageous as it has spoiled one of the prettiest trees on the street. Such vandalism is unpardonable.

The attention of our readers is specially invited to the advertisement of Messrs C A Sherwood & Co. who announce a general reduction in light weight underwear &c. This house is determined not to carry over any old dead stock but will give its customers the advantage of a clearance sale. Be sure to call and make selections. Mr Sherwood is one of the most prudent buyers in our state and knows just how to please the public. Let the ladies specially call and see him.

Improving.

We are pleased to learn through a private letter that our excellent townsman, Capt B F Park, who is at Mr John S Park's Alkaline, Saline and Sulphur Springs, nine miles from Danville, Va., is gradually improving and regaining his strength and activity.

The Weather.

For North Carolina:
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

Fair and cool today and Wednesday morning, then becoming warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 80 minimum temperature 68; rainfall 0.00.

Notice.

All persons who wish to stand the Civil Service examination to be held in this city on August 5th will bear in mind that their applications will have to be filed with the Secretary of the local board by 4 o'clock p. m. on Monday, July 17th. Blanks and instructions pertaining to the examination will be furnished by applying at the postoffice.

Important Case.

This afternoon in the Supreme Court room before Judge Whitaker at chambers the case of Col Tate, State Treasurer in the matter of a receiver for the Bank of New Hanover will be heard. The question at issue involves the right of the Treasurer in cases of a failure of a State Bank to have a receiver appointed. It is a case of much interest.

Postage Stamp Rogues.

We understand that some of our public officers and business men have been missing postage stamps recently, and upon investigation find that some one has been systematically stealing them. Detectives are on the scent and somebody is likely to be overtaken. In the meantime our business men are requested to be on the lookout for persons offering postage stamps for sale.

A Rough Joke.

Some small boys in the northern part of the city are in the habit of playing a very rough joke on any one who may by chance become their victim. The writer fell into the hands of the philistines last night. It is a snake joke. They have a bogus snake made of black cloth and stuffed with sand and placing it in the grass on the sidewalk they hide themselves on the opposite side of the street and by the use of a cord they cause the snake to rustle from the grass and run under the feet of every passer by. The writer was made to jump about ten feet. It is a very rough joke to play on a man and it is too rough to play on women and children.

A R L.

We hear that the children of Mr Ellington are generally improving.

There will be a regular old fashioned barbecue on John A Mills' farm formerly known as the Richard Smith place, beyond Crabtree creek bridge, next Friday, 14th July. Only 50 cts will be charged for all the barbecue you can eat. Ladies and gentlemen are invited. UTLEY & COUNCIL.
