CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr A Dugli is much improved today.

Prof Von Herman has returned to the city.

Miss Lula Riddle is visiting friends in Durham.

Allen Park is now lighted with electricity and looks beautiful.

There was the usual attendance of country people in the city today.

Nothing is more delightful these warm nights than a street car ride.

Don't fail to look up your relics and send them to the antiquity society.

We are glad to note that Nash square is being properly cleaned up.

The bathing pools at the parks are the correct things these warm evenings.

All the machinery for the new Pearl cotton factory at Durham has arrived.

Send in your orders for space at the fair grounds if you want an eligible place.

The capitol today looked like a deserted mansion house. No news stirring.

The scarlet fever cases are still improving. There are no additional cases reported.

Judge Boykin of the Superior Court was married to Miss Ada Rogers, at Concord at Wednesday.

Mr N B Broughton will deliver an address on "Personal Work" in Durham on Friday night, August 18th.

Cantaloupes are selling in Wilmington at 30 cents a dozen. They have not begun to reach that figure here.

All members of the Christian church are requested to be present tomorrow afternoon as a short conference is desired after service.

We are glad to learn there is a good prospect that work on the colored Methodist church, in this city, will soon be resumed.

Now that the trustees of Rex hospital fund have secured the St John's hospital property, we hope soon to see the new institution fully under way.

A man went to one of our butchers this morning and bought a cents' worth of beef for a mocking bird. He then asked the butcher to give him a half pound of beef for his dog.

Major Roberts, superintendent of the capitol and grounds continues to make improvements. He is going to have everything around him in nice order before the meeting of the General Assembly.

There is a notable scarcity of peaches in market considering the reported abundance of the crop, and we have failed to see many thus far that we consider properly ripe. Perhaps they will be along after a while.

Hon A H A Williams has been informed by the postmaster general that the postmasters at Oxford, Greensboro and Durham will not be appointed until next winter, as their terms are gauged by the date of their confirmation.

A severe wind and rain storm passed over the Leesville section last Thursday doing considerable damage to crops and property. The saw mill of Dr Sorrell was blown down as was also the chimney of Mr John O'Neal. Nobody is reported hurt.

The county Alliance of Edgecombe county has adopted resolutions urging upon the member of congress from that district to vote for free and unlimited silver coinage at the present ratio, and not to vote for the repeal of the Sherman law until a free coinage bill is offered.

The seventh annual convention of the Durham county Sunday school association will be held at the court house in the town of Durham, commencing on the night of Friday, August 18th, closing with the afternoon session on Saturday, the 19th.

Lookout.

Postmasters have been instructed from Washington against disease germ and prevent their passage through the mails. The question is how can postmasters tell.

Grand Entertainment.

The two encampments of this city have perfected arrangements to give the Grand Encampment and visiting Patriarchs a collation at Brookside Park on next Thursday afternoon, which will be served by Mr Charles Brestch. It is desired that every member of the local encampments will participate in this entertainment.

It is expected that the Grand Encampment will install their officers in the Royal Purple Degree, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, so as to admit to the installation ceremony every member of that degree in the city, and as soon as the installation is over all will take the street cars for Brookside Park for refreshments, and a good time may be expected.

Lightning danced around considerably last night in the telegraph offices.

Masonic.

Regular communication of Hiram Lodge, No 40, A F and A M, on Monday night, July 17th. Every member of the lodge is expected to be present. Members of our sister lodges are fraternally invited to be present.
