Inasmuch as it takes from six to nine months to get the city officers to report after the close of fiscal year, would it not be better to put two years into one?

The doctors have not discovered any specifics for the cure of cholera, but they have done ever better; they have demonstrated that it can be prevented and barred out. Cholera is not in the air but in the food and drink, and in the accumulated filth of decaying matter. Keep clean in person. Keep the streets and home clean. Drink pure water and eat wholesome food are the directions, and with care are easily observed.

Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows at Brookside Park yesterday afternoon was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the kind that has ever taken place in this city. The spread was splendid and ample justice was done by the large crowd present. Remarks were made by Grand High Priest J O Yopp, G Senior Warden Pelletier, G Secretary Gaston, Grand Junior Warden Heartt, Grand Master Tonnoffski, Grand Master Douglas, Auditor Furman, Capt Ashe, Rev Dr Hall, Father Marion, Grand Treasurer Blake and P G P G H Glass to make remarks, which they all did to the enjoyment of the crowd. The presence of Mr Parks was observed and he was called on to respond. After some time spent in resting under the shade and pleasant conversations, which the ladies appeared to enjoy particularly, the visitors were carried to Pullen Park, and there having spent the afternoon most pleasantly returned to the city.

"Saratoga"

This is the name given to a picnic place nine miles from Durham and quite a large crowd of the young people of that place are making good use of it. Some of our girls and boys are enjoying it also. It is a good idea. Why not have a place of pleasant result in reach of Raleigh.
