VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1893.

NO. 76

CITY IN BRIEF.

Everything is unusually quiet in revenue circles.

The burnt district in Greensboro is to be speedily rebuilt.

Piles of water melons and cantaloupes in market today.

Miss Minnie K. Tucker, who has been quite sick, is improving.

The docket for the opening term of the Superior Court is climbing up some.

See advertisement of a house for sale on the corner of North Blount and Peace streets.

A commission was issued from the executive office this morning to E. H. Patterson, of Halifax, as a notary public.

All the designs for the proposed Confederate monument will be submitted to the association in the early part of August.

The Rev. Richard Burwell, of Texas, is in the city visiting his venerable father Rev. Dr. Robt. Burwell and other relatives.

In absence of Dr. Daniel, Rev. Richard L. Burwell, of Texas, will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. No services at night.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of E. L. Harris, millers agent for the Acme Brand of flour. Housekeepers are invited specially to read the advertisement. It will repay them.

The Rev. Dr. Daniel has gone to Weldon N. C. by order of Albemarle Presbytery, where he will hold services tomorrow and ordain and install two elders and two deacons of that place.

The colored excursionists yesterday afternoon took in the city from every point of view. Pullen Park seemed to be one of the main attractions, and was visited by large crowds.

A select and interesting entertainment was given by "lads and lassies" last night at the residence of Mr. A. J. Ellis, on the Hillsboro road. Recitations, &c., made up the pleasure of the evening.

The University Law School now has 21 pupils. A summer review school will open August 7th and continue four weeks for the benefit of students desiring to enter the University, but not well prepared.

Let us have a publication of the report of our city officers for 1892. The Board of Aldermen owe it to themselves to have this done, and a refusal is a reflection upon our city government. The people so understand it.

Early this morning the street cleaners were out in full force with shovels and carts taking up the debris piled up on the streets brought from the back yards. This is the proper way to bid defiance to malarial fever and other ailments.

The annual catalogue of the State Normal and Industrial school is out. It shows an attendance of 223 students during the term just closed. Of these twenty-two were graduates of other institutions, and eighty had previously engaged in teaching. The returns show that much good work has been accomplished.

"Man in the Moon" and "Hunch Back," by their communications in regard to extending the street railway to Millburnie, have somewhat brought our people to considering the propriety and feasibility of their suggestions. We incline to the opinion that there is something more than "air castles" in the plan.

The Oxford excursionists played havoc with the cantaloupes and water melons yesterday. It is estimated that they destroyed fifteen hundred, bought and eaten from the market carts, on the north side of the market house. Our colored visitors, by their orderly conduct, added to the already good name of Oxford.

Latest accounts report the condition of Mr. George H. Snow, more favorable.

The operatives of the Raleigh cotton factory had a picnic party at Brookside Park this afternoon.

Maj. S. F. Telfair, private secretary to the governor, returned to the city from Morehead this afternoon.

The heated term still continues to the great advantage of the cotton crop, but bad on suffering humanity.

The watermelon trade was unusually brisk yesterday, owing to the excursionists from Oxford and Durham.

We saw some watermelon carts yesterday afternoon that looked like they might have been struck by a cyclone.

The usual Saturday attendance at the market prevailed today. Everything good to eat could be had at reasonable rates.

Special Sermon.

Members of the Raleigh and Gaston Relief Association are requested to meet at their reading room, at 10 o'clock, tomorrow morning, from whence they will go in a body to the Baptist Tabernacle church where Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall will preach a special sermon.

Sunday Cigars

Should be purchased this afternoon and tonight at J. Hal Bobbitt's. The Saboroso, Figaro and Gilt Edge are the LEADERS sold in Raleigh. Also a line of Key West and imported cigars.

Special Notice.

Shoes! Shoes!! Shoes!!! Every body needs shoes but everybody does not know always where to buy shoes at the lowest prices. The question often comes up in the family where can I buy my shoes at the cheapest rate, for quality, in this city. In the course of a year 25 to 50 cents saved on each pair of shoes bought by the family amounts up and helps to supply other needs. Well now, when you want to answer this question and prove it to your satisfaction go to Norris' Dry Goods Store, 313 Fayetteville street.

Ladies Only.

Every lady of good sense and good judgment will please note. Some day next week we will have one case of Irish lawn of the most beautiful patterns white ground and small, neat figures, which we shall sell at 9c per yard.
