VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JULY 25, 1893.

NO. 78

CITY IN BRIEF.

The watermelon glut continues. The street sprinkler should not be idle. Fine afternoons for the baby brigade.

Keep your premises clean and avoid disease.

The drouth in some localities is getting distressing.

Gov Carr returned to the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs J B Batchelor have returned to the city.

Judge Avery arrived in the city from Durham yesterday.

Peaches plentiful and delicious. Besides they are getting cheap.

Let us have a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. It is much needed.

Rev Richard Burwell, of Texas, is in the city, visiting his father, Rev Dr Robert Burwell.

We are glad to learn that the little child of Mr A B Stronach who has been quite sick is improving.

Kinley J Tener has been appointed a commissioner for North Carolina, at 441, Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

A considerable crowd went out today to attend the sale of the Thos Bridgers' property east of the city.

Read the announcement of Messrs Thos H Briggs & Sons who are selling baby carriages at cost. Call and be convinced.

Don't forget the annual excursion of the Relief Society of the R & G Railroad to take place July 27th to Littleton. Fare for the round trip $1. A good time may be expected.

Miss Lizzie Mitchell, the accomplished daughter of Washington Mitchell, Esq, of Aulander, N C, is in the city, visiting Misses Alice and Maggie Ferrell, 325 South Person street.

A meeting of those who favor the organization of a society for prevention of cruelty to animals, will be held in the office of the clerk of the Superior court on Thursday afternoon next at 6 o'clock.

Young Men's Missionary Union meets every Tuesday night at 8:15 p m, at the Sunday School rooms of the Baptist Tabernacle. Everybody invited. Subject for tonight: "The danger of becoming hardened."

The state taxes on the railroads for general and school purposes, are $96,000, just twice what they were when the railroad commission commenced its work in 1891. The assessed value of the railroads was only $12,000,000.

Married.

At the residence of Miss Fannie Halley at 3 o'clock yesterday, by Rev Jno N Cole, Mr John J Wishart, of Greensboro, to Miss Ella Peatross, of this city.

Settled.

It is now definitely settled that the 3d and 4th regiments will go into camp at Charlotte in August. The encampment will be held without aid from the state. The military will take along their camp equipages and rations. The rest will be done by Charlotte.

A Fine Sermon.

At Central M E Church Sunday morning the pastor Rev J B Hurley, by special request repeated a sermon, that he delivered to his congregation a little more than a year ago. Text Isaiah 32:2. And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. The subject was handled with care and ease and the sermon was one of great power, and eloquence; many were heard to say it was the best they ever heard, and all who heard it spoke in highest terms of praise.

We Will Protect and Defend You.

It is good to have a friend in the time of need. A friend indeed are we today and tomorrow—we are selling Irish Lawns at 9c a yard. Most beautiful patterns. You need not doubt the goods have arrived and you can see them. D T Swindell.

Drive in Chenille Table Covers

We have just placed on sale, at our Fayetteville street door, a limited number of extra quality six quarter Chenille Table Covers, with knotted fringe at the very low price of $1.00 each. As the quantity is limited we would suggest an early call. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Now Here.

The case of Irish Lawns are here and were put on sale this morning at 9c a yard. These goods are 15c per yard elsewhere, and no one can sell them for 9c but us. D T Swindell.

Lady, Lady, Lend Me Your Ear!

We have a case of Irish Lawns on sale this week at 9c a yard. Beautiful white ground, small neat figure of brown, blue, pink, &c. Remember this is no bauble, as you pay 15c a yard for same elsewhere. We sell this one case at 9c. D T Swindell.

How Rich—How Poor.

There is not a family in the city of Raleigh who can afford to let this opportunity go by, the rich are too smart and clear sighted; the poor if they understand it will not let the opportunity pass. Irish Lawns at 9c a yard is something entirely unheard of before. Nine cents buys it now, at D T Swindell's.
