Gardens suffering.
Attend to your dog tax.
Mr Caleb Osborne, of Oxford, was in the city yesterday afternoon.
Clement Manly, Esq. of New Bern, is in the city.
Go to the parks tonight and enjoy a refreshing bath.
Cool mornings and nights are anxiously looked for.
See notice of W D Haywood, Justice of the Peace.
Mr B H Woodell and family left this evening for Greensboro for their future home.
Capt Swift Galloway, of Snow Hill, will lecture in behalf of the Keeley cure.
Adjutant General Cameron is busily engaged fixing for the encampment next month, at Charlotte.
The annual meeting of the N C Horticultural Society will be held at Southern Pines, August 3d.
Of the 2 per cent dividend recently declared by the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad company, $36,500 goes into the State Treasury.

It will not be very long now before the merry laugh of the school girls will again be heard in our midst. They are badly missed.

The Masonic picnic for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Home, will be held at Mocksville, Davie county, on the 10th of August.

Mr W M Brown, proprietor of the VISITOR, who has been confined to his room for several days from sickness has so far recovered as to be at his place of business today.

J B Weaver, the Third party candidate for president last year will speak at Lilesville, August 5th and at Teachey's Duplin county, August 7th.

The Governor has appointed Colonels J G Hall and C A Kelley, commissioners on behalf of the State to assist in locating the position of the North Carolina troops at Chicaumauga. The appointments are made in conformity with the National law of 1890.

The N C Tobacco Association will leave Greensboro in a body for the World's Fair August 16th. They will have a special train of five Pullman cars and will run through without change to Chicago, arriving in time for North Carolina day on the 18th of August.

We are under obligations to Mr R M Utzman for a box of nice tomatoes raised in his garden, corner Jones & Dawson streets. They were exceedingly fine. Mr Utzman keeps on hand at all times fresh vegetables gathered every morning.

We know that it is between the two seasons, but our merchants still have much stock to run off. This can be done to the greatest advantage by letting the public know it through THE VISITOR. If you have anything to sell we can dispose of it for you. Ask those who have tried it.

Yesterday morning the railroad commission had under consideration the matter of the Wilmington, Onslow and Eastern Carolina railway and the Atlantic and North Carolina railway. The issues involve the right of the first named road to certain privileges as to right of way in the town of New Bern. It was decided by both corporations to accept the decision of the commission.

The Big Day of the season.

In the past those who participated in the excursion and picnic given by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Workingmen's Relief Association, have been more than satisfied, but in the sixth annual excursion which leaves here on Thursday July 27th those who go will be delighted. Everything has been perfected for a grand day of pleasure, music brass and string and vocal will enliven the ride to Littleton and all day long upon the grounds. This is the only excursion for white persons only that will leave Raleigh this season. It will be a whole day of recreation, pleasure, enjoyment and health reviving influences for the grounds well fitted up are at All Healing Springs. The train leaves Johnson street crossing promptly at 6:45 in the morning and returns at 8:30 so every one can go and carry their wives and little ones. Baskets labeled will be taken in charge of and carefully cared for. The committee in charge of this excursion are prepared to guarantee a whole day of excellent enjoyment. Don't forget the day and time of leaving.

Resolutions of Respect.

The choir of Edenton Street M E Church adopted the following resolutions of respect upon the death of Mr Hunter L Harris, who was recently drowned in Little river near Dann, N C.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His Divine Wisdom to take unto Himself our dear brother Hunter L Harris; and

Whereas, It was always his custom, when in the city, to join us in singing the songs of praise and thanksgiving to our God, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Mr Harris we feel very keenly the loss of a useful and willing worker in Christ's vineyard, and who so nobly exemplified the many types of Christian manhood, and that by the use of his voice he won the admiration and esteem of all whose pleasure it was to hear him sing.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved mother and brothers our heartfelt sympathy in this house of darkness and sorrow, praying the Father to bestow upon them that resignation and comfort which alone comes from God; and help them to say that, "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that copies be furnished the Christian Advocate and city papers for publication.
