RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1893.

NO. 80

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mrs J W Hinsdale is convalescing. Mr Chas E Johnson left yesterday for a trip to Europe.

The shipment of grapes still continues.

Work has been completed on the third floor of the Governor's mansion.

Our colored firemen propose to go to the Charlotte celebration next month.

It is now estimated that 400 brandy distilleries will be at work in this district this year.

The Executive committee of the Farmer's Alliance will meet in this city next Wednesday.

The Agricultural department has sent out over 100,000 copies of the monthly bulletin this week.

Health officer Ferrell says that there is no more sickness in Raleigh than usual for July.

The dog days are fast approaching and the utmost precaution is needed to keep off disease.

Many applications for admission to the Agricultural and Mechanical College are coming in.

Hon O H Dockery, consul to Rio, has sailed for home and is expected in North Carolina in about ten days.

Mr J A Jones, has gone to Louisville to attend the District Methodist Conference.

Although the lightning yesterday afternoon shed around at a wild rate, we hear of no damage so far.

Mr and Mrs J A Brown are spending a few days at Flint, in this county.

Col J W Hinsdale, accompanied by several members of his household, left today for Chicago and other points of interest.

It is thought that the North Carolina railroad will soon surrender its exemption from taxation as suggested by Gov Carr.

We are glad to hear that Associate Justice Walter Clark, has about entirely recovered from his recent indisposition.

In order not to conflict with the races in Richmond, the dates for those at the Alamance fair have been changed to October 3d and 6th.

We were informed today by Prof Leary of Shaw Institute that the condition of Rev Dr Tupper has very much improved. He is still at Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts.

Hon John O Scarborough has gone to attend the meeting of the Trustees of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. From there he will attend institutes in Macon county.

A chapter of the Brotherhood of St Andrew has been organized in Christ church here. A chapter has been for some time in the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The railroad commission still has under consideration the matter of the right away between the A & N C railroad and Wilmington and Onslow road, in the city of New Bern.

The traffic managers of the Associated Railways of Virginia and North Carolina met at the Hammocks near Wilmington yesterday. There was a large attendance of representative railroad men from all parts of the two States.

Six hundred new patent seats for recitation rooms and $120 worth of slate blackboards for the mathematical rooms, amounting to $1,500 in all, were received at the University of North Carolina last Tuesday. The sewerage and water works system are being rapidly put in.

The storm yesterday in the way of an electric display, was perhaps the grandest ever witnessed here. For almost an hour lightning was incessant accompanied by terrific peals of thunder. The scene inspired mingled admiration and awe. The rain came in good time, for which let us all be thankful.

The shipment of grapes is at its height.

Maj Jno C Winder has removed to Norfolk Va.

Prof E McK Goodwin has just returned from a trip to the world's fair.

Mr H A Whiting, president of the Wilmington, Newberne and Norfolk Railroad was in the city yesterday.

The rain yesterday afternoon was worth thousands of dollars to Wake county.

All aboard for the teacher's trip to Chicago August 1st. It is going to be a great occasion.

The colored Insane asylum at Goldsboro is now full to overflowing. The new additions are being rapidly built.

Mr Moneyham gave a delightful picnic yesterday to his class of girls of the Tabernacle school at Brookside Park.

The Hillsboro Observer says that maddogs are plentiful in the neighborhood of Mebane in Alamance county.

Scarlet fever has about entirely disappeared from our city. All those afflicted in the family of Mr Ellington are out of danger.

We are in receipt of a complete specimen book from Dodson's printers supply depot Atlanta, Ga. It is a valuable publication.

Dr Stephen P Weeks, who formerly held the chair of history of Trinity College, is lecturing on the quakers in North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia.
