RALEIGH, FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1893.

NO. 81

CITY IN BRIEF.

Nights getting cool and delightful. The encampment at Charlotte next month will be a big thing.

The Executive mansion will soon be completed in all its arrangements.

The railroad commission taxes the Pullman car company property in this State at an assessment of $81,568.07.

Mr Josephus Daniels, who has been taking in the Chicago exposition, has returned to Washington.

There is not much sickness at the Soldiers' Home. The old veterans are getting on about as well as usual.

So far no monument has been erected to the memory of Col L L Polk, as was suggested.

The market continues abundantly supplied with vegetables and fruits, at the most reasonable prices.

Mr J M Barbee left this afternoon for Hickory to see his wife and children who are sojourning there.

Mrs H H Carroll is in the city, visiting her sons Mr J D and R G Carroll.

See notice of mortgage sale of land by W N Jones, attorney for mortgagee.

After paying the recent 2 per cent dividend, the Atlantic and North Carolina road has $19,000 in the treasury.

Don't forget to send all your spare vegetables to the mission rooms, corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. They are needed.

We are pleased to see Mr Miles Goodwin out again after a long spell of sickness. We hope he may soon regain his health.

Mrs E G Horton has been in the country very sick. We are glad to say she has returned to the city much improved.

The races next month are now all the talk and the prospects are that they will be the best we have ever had. The track is being placed in the best possible condition.

The grand jury of New Hanover county have investigated the recent bank failure in the city of Wilmington, but find no fault with the officials.

Mrs C J Tucker, who has been spending several months in this city, left for the north yesterday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs Wayne Allcott, who will spend several weeks in Binghamton and Norwich, New York.

The special vestibule train for the North Carolina Teacher's world fair party will leave Raleigh for Chicago on Tuesday morning, August 1st at 7 o'clock via Richmond and Danville system. Don't forget this.

The property of the Western Union Telegraph Co, is now assessed by the railway commission at $173,892. It has 3,100 miles of one wire, and has in addition 7,700 miles in excess of one wire. The Postal has 265 miles of one wire and 1,100 miles in excess.

The Governor has pardoned Wm Ganner, who was convicted in Henderson county of horse stealing and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. He had served out five years of his term.

Mrs R H Brooks, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs Thorp, of Rocky Mount, returned home yesterday accompanied by her daughter who will spend two or three weeks in the city.

Fetters Southern Magazine for August, is to hand. It is a splendid number containing reading matter of the highest order. It is one of the best magazines in the country.

Died.
