RALEIGH, TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1893.

NO. 90

Success to Him.

We learn that Dr Lewis Battle, son of R H Battle, Esq. has gone to Washington City where he proposes to locate for the purpose of practicing law. He is a gentleman of the highest character and thoroughly up in his profession. We wish him the most complete success, and we feel sure he will attain it.

Good Music.

Mr Hal W Ayer, secretary of the North Carolina state fair, has been authorized by the executive committee to contract with any of the bands of the state for music at the coming exhibition. He desires those who wish to make contracts to correspond with him, naming terms, &c. The fair will be held October 17, 18 and 19th.

Brookside Park.

Tonight will be a grand gala time at Brookside park. Riddick's band of five pieces will be on hand and dancing will be free. The park will be nicely illuminated and a good time may be expected. The cars will run until a late hour and there has been no better occasion afforded this season for splendid enjoyment. Let there be a large turn out.

A Fine Show.

By invitation of the gentlemanly chief conductor of the firm, we called in at the fine furniture emporium of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell this morning and witnessed the splendid array of everything in their line. We were specially struck with a most beautiful line of centre tables at $1 each. Nothing like this has ever before been seen here until introduced by this firm. It would require a volume to recount the numberless articles suitable for the parlor, chamber and kitchen. Splendid lounges, elegant wardrobes, luxurious chairs, and thousands of other magnificent articles, all at such prices as are bound to elicit purchasers. No visitor to Raleigh should leave without seeing the tempting show. Remember the place, south side of market square.

Our Fair.

There is very little to relieve the monotony of daily life at this season of the year and, unless we can have something of an exciting nature to talk about we will be in the throes of extreme dullness. Fortunately we have a state exposition near at hand and we can do much in the way of helping out by working and talking for it. It should be remembered that much of the success of any scheme depends upon the interest in it, and the zeal attended upon those who have it in charge. Our secretary Mr Ayer has worked in and out of season for the cause, and he is doing all that could reasonably be expected of him. He must have the co-operation of our people however, if the fair is to be all that is desired. It is conceded that our crops are as good as could have been expected and our people will be in as favorable condition to attend the fair this year as usual. Let all who desire to make entries secure space at once, so that the preparations can go forward as rapidly as possible. Let us talk up the fair and work for it.

Special Notice.

The Mechanics' and Investors' Union of Raleigh, which is a building and loan savings bank, paying a liberal interest or profit to its members, desires to extend its business and to induce ladies to become stockholders. During the past few weeks over thirty thousand dollars of stock has been sold to the business men of Raleigh. A payment of $3.25 per month (about ten cents per day) will pay for $500 stock, which will mature and be payable in about eight years. It only requires small economy to enable any person to own a few shares of this stock and obtain in a short time the money with which to carry out some cherished scheme.

During the next sixty days the company will donate to the King's Daughters of Raleigh one half of the entrance fees of all members who send this notice with their application and fee to the secretary.

For further information apply to George Allen secretary at office of the company, 107 Fayetteville street, or if notified to do so he will call at your residence or place of business.
