

Married.

Last night at 9 o'clock, Mr. Melvin Andrews to Miss Colbie Riggan. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Hurley, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bertha Riggan, on Morgan street.

A Splendid Showing.

We are enabled to make a showing of the ice cream sold by our friend Mr. A. Dughi, making a comparison with the past six years for the five days from Monday, August 7th, to Friday, August 11th. The record was six years ago: Three quarts, next 2 gallons, next 4 gallons, next 6 gallons, next 8 gallons, and for the present year 21 gallons. This is a most admirable showing in the matter of increase and proves the high standard reached by Mr. Dughi in disposing of his most excellent cream. We are pleased to note this steady advance in his trade which all our people will admit is merited in the highest degree.

The Penitentiary.

Since the change of management of the penitentiary, more than ordinary interest is manifested in all that pertains to the institution. The main objective point is, as to whether or not it can be made self sustaining. There is much diversity of opinion on the subject, and time can only tell. There has however, been a more active course pursued in some of the branches, and notably so in making brick. There are now 225 convicts at this business and it will no doubt prove remunerative. Let us hope that Mr. Leazer may reach his highest expectations.

Our Opera House.

We doubt if in any city the size of Raleigh, there is a more beautiful or more convenient Opera House than the one which will soon be opened to the public. In design and furnish it will compare favorably with any in the South. The proprietor, Mr. Page, has spared no pains to make it desirable in all respects, and, under the management of Mr. Leach, we expect to reach a high standard of popularity. We do not know the date for the opening, but suppose it will not be long distant. We should like to see it a most important event attended with appropriate exercises, and we respectfully suggest this to the management.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, except local thunderstorms with light rain. Cooler interior Saturday night.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.
On Saturday: Occasional rains; much cooler Saturday night, and the first three days next week.
Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 89 minimum temperature 68; rainfall 0.0.

Change.

There will be a change in the schedule of the North Carolina Railroad next Sunday by which the train from the West which now reaches Raleigh at 12:30 will arrive at about 10:30.

The Demand.

For Otterburn Lithia Water is daily increasing, and every one in Raleigh should drink it freely at this season, even if there is nothing the matter with them at present, to prevent the possibility of a spell of sickness. Sold in half gallon bottles at 20c, by J. HAL BOBBITT.

Special Notice.
The Mechanics' and Investors' Union of Raleigh, which is a building and loan savings bank, paying a liberal interest or profit to its members, desires to extend its business and to induce ladies to become stockholders. During the past few weeks over thirty thousand dollars of stock has been sold to the business men of Raleigh. A payment of $3.25 per month (about ten cents per day) will pay for $500 stock, which will mature and be payable in about eight years.
It only requires small economy to enable any person to own a few shares of this stock and obtain in a short time the money with which to carry out some cherished scheme.
During the next sixty days the company will donate to the King's Daughters of Raleigh one half of the entrance fees of all members who send this notice with their application and fee to the secretary.
For further information apply to George Allen secretary at office of the company, 107 Fayetteville street, or if notified to do so he will call at your residence or place of business.
