

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 1893.

NO. 94

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr Joo H Winder is in the city.
 Judge Womack has returned to the city.
 Cooler weather promised tomorrow afternoon.
 The July flies keep up a regular chorus these nights.
 The days are getting perceptibly shorter.
 Over five thousand people are expected to attend the Friends meeting at High Point tomorrow.
 The firm of the Dukes bought $7,900 worth of stamps at one time in Durham last week.
 The reverend collections for the past week in Durham amounted to $12,985 75.
 Elon College will open on the 30th inst, under the most promising auspices.
 A canning factory has recently been organized at Henderson and is now ready for business.
 Strangers visiting the city cannot do better than call on Messrs Thomas & Maxwell furniture dealers, south side of market square.
 Regular meeting of Wm G Hill Lodge, No 48, A F and A M, tonight at 8:15 o'clock. All Masons in good standing cordially invited.
 We had a pleasant call from Col J N Bunting, of Panther Branch township this morning. The Colonel is looking well.
 The president of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod, has issued a call for that body to meet in extra session in the Lutheran church at Salisbury, August 16th inst.
 Mr and Mrs R H Weathers and their beautiful and accomplished daughter, Miss Eva B Weathers, leave today for Winston, in which city they will make their future home.
 Remember that the Rosenthal Clothing Company are offering to the public such inducements as are rarely seen in this city, Fayetteville street opposite the postoffice and "Dave" Rosenthal at the helm.
 Next Saturday, the 19th inst, Mr H A Chappell, county superintendent of education, will hold at the court house in Raleigh an examination for any young men that desire to enter the Agricultural and Mechanical college as county students.
 A friend promises to let us know the identical house in which Ex President Andrew Johnson was born. As it is something that the Ex President never knew himself, it will be interesting.
 Referring to the statement that the late George H. Snow, Esq., studied law under Col. Haywood, we learn that this is incorrect and that his preceptor was the late Richard C. Badger, Esq., whose kindness of disposition and attachment to Mr. Snow led him to interest himself in an unusual degree in familiarizing him with the principles of the law. Mr. Badger was a gentleman of rare talents and unusually gifted, and his services to Mr. Snow bore admirable fruits.
 The protracted meeting, which has been in progress at Cedar Fork Baptist church at Nelson for the past week closed, yesterday. There were between twenty five and thirty conversions, and a large number connected themselves with the church and were baptized.
 Age is respectable, but not in shoes. We clear out ours the season they are made. Everybody can get a bargain from us in spring and summer goods—any kind.
 C. A. Sherwood & Co.

Lost.

Between the depot and my house last night a small traveling bag, bearing the name of H. H. B. B. Finder will be suitably rewarded upon delivery to me.
 I. M. PROCTER.
