

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1893.

NO. 97

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting Seaton Sales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., at 8 o'clock sharp. Members of the lodge are earnestly requested to attend. All Odd Fellows welcomed.

Deserved.

The congregation of the First Baptist church of this city have granted a three weeks vacation to Rev Dr J W Carter. He will spend the time at his former home in West Virginia. He has been a most devoted pastor and really deserves a resting spell.

All Right.

We learn from the Greensboro Record, that Rev F L Reid, the new president of Greensboro Female College, has succeeded in securing donations sufficient to furnish the college grove with twenty five nice lawn settees. He says the prospects for the fall term are very good.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Cooler fair except light local rains.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Friday: Fair slightly cooler, westerly winds.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

False Report.

A rumor was recently put in circulation in the vicinity of Charlotte, that the Richmond and Danville railroad was paying off its employees in due bills when they had to discount. In an interview with the Washington Post, Treasurer Hall declares the rumor false. He says the men will be paid off at the proper time, and in the usual way. No trouble whatever is anticipated.

In a Jug.

A banker in Alamance county had an acquaintance to whom he went to borrow money. The collateral was such as could not be resisted and the friend took the banker to the loft and rolled out an old jug. A cornstopper was in the mouth and next to it was a pile of dried apples. Next came $2,000 in bills and coin which had been hoarded up for years. He got 18 per cent for the loan.

Brooklyn Festival.

The ladies of Brooklyn church will hold a festival opposite the church on Thursday night, August 17th. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend. The entertainment will be for the benefit of the church, and we hope it will have a large attendance and an abundance of patronage. Let every one attend who possibly can do so. News and Observer please copy.

Further Particulars.

The following additional particulars of the recent disaster on the Atlantic and Danville railroad will be of interest. The train left Danville in the morning about 9 o'clock and consisted of a mail, baggage, express car, three passenger coaches and a sleeper. Near Milton is a large trestle. The engine passed over this, but as it reached the opposite side, the entire structure gave way throwing all the coaches into the river. The conductor was instantly killed with six passengers. A large number were injured. No cause is given for the accident as the trestle was supposed to be in splendid condition. All the wounded are being properly cared for.

Misses Jane and Bettie Powell, of Smithfield, are visiting Miss Lucy Barham, of this city.
