

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1893.

NO. 102

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Sweet potatoes getting plentiful. Quite a cold wave prevailed today. 'alamity howlers should step to the rear.

The cool weather is suggestive of the "half shell".

The cotton market is at almost a complete standstill.

Manager Hearst has a good list booked for the season.

The improvements at the Insane Asylum are about finished.

We are likely to have soon one of the foremost tragedians in this country in Raleigh.

A camp meeting is in progress in the vicinity of Greensboro and much interest prevails.

This looks like the long rainy spell in August which is usually the breaking up of the heated term.

An application for the ten cent circus has been rather set back on account of the enormous tax.

Mrs Shumaker, of University Station, who was recently so badly injured by her husband, is rapidly getting well.

The July number of the Charlotte Medical Journal has an elaborately written article on typhoid fever. It is of much interest, not only to the profession, but to the entire public.

An exchange very properly says: Stop croaking. It doesn't pay. It is all loss and no profit. Whenever the croaker shall cease to ply his vacation, money will be plenty and business prosperous. Stop croaking.

There is a dog in Mecklenburg county that carries corn and hay into the stables for horses and keeps the cow from going into the stable. He will set on a chair, and walk with a corn stalk in one paw like a dude.

In the United States Court at Norfolk yesterday, judgment was rendered against the Richmond and Danville Railroad in favor of W G Jackson receiver of the West Point Terminal Company, for nearly $3,000,000.

There was a slight detention of the Richmond excursion down the road this morning owing to some disarrangement of the machinery. So the report goes. It was soon remedied however, and the excursionists went on their way rejoicing.

The program which was announced today for the races was postponed until tomorrow, and the program for tomorrow is postponed until Friday. In other words, the two day's races will take place Thursday and Friday. This was rendered necessary, as we understand, on account of the rather heavy condition of the track caused by the rain.

Give us the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act says one. Let us have free coinage of silver says another. Still another says give us a huge pile of currency based on the fiat of the government, but the average newspaper man says give us subscribers and a plenty of "ads," and we won't quarrel about the kind of money. We will agree to take all nickels, if that will suit.

The special world's fair tour No 2 is announced by the Seaboard Air Line for Tuesday, Sept 5th. These personally conducted tours, inaugurated by the Seaboard Air Line, have become exceedingly popular with the world's fair tourist from the fact that they afford the most comfortable way possible of reaching Chicago and at the same time reduces the cost of the trip to a minimum. The perfect hotel arrangements for the tourist party is a special feature, avoiding as it does the possibility of much confusion on your arrival and trouble incident to securing satisfactory accommodations. Mr A J Cooke, S P A, will be glad to give you all the information desired.

A FEARFUL SITUATION.

The Pecuniary Condition of the Country Most Alarming.

We are not alarmists but we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that the present condition of the country, in a pecuniary sense, is most alarming. What is worse, if matters are not speedily adjusted, we fear that the bottom has not been reached. Turn and twist it as you will, it is apparent that currency is becoming scarcer and scarcer, and there is an evident corner which bodes no good. In this connection, we are struck with the statement which, while it denies that the Durham factories have shut down, puts down the contingency that they will continue to run so long as currency hold out. It is true that we are somewhat cheered up with the announcement that gold is pouring in from Europe. This, however, will do but little good, if designing men see fit to frustrate the movement and the distrust is allowed to continue on account of the inaction of congress. Just where the trouble lies no one seems to know, and the wisacre o' congress appear as much at a loss as the humblest man in the nation.
