

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1893.

NO. 114

Back Taxes.

In accordance with the provisions of a law of the last legislature Mr R K Martin has been appointed special collector of back taxes for 1884 to 1893. The total amount will foot up to $11,800.

Knights of Pythias.

Owing to the appearance on Friday night of Sir Knight Robt Downing, Phalanx Lodge No 34, K of P will meet tomorrow, Thursday night at 8 o'clock for work in the third rank.

Jewish Holidays.

Rosh Hashanah the commencement of the Jewish New Year falls next Sunday 10th inst. Ten days later will come Yom Kipper, the Day of Atonement. These sessions are all appropriately celebrated.

The Crops.

It is now certain that the outlook for crops as indicated by the September report is not so bright as could be hoped. The fearful storm of last week has damaged the corn and tobacco crops especially. The greatest suffering appears to have been in the Piedmont section of the State.

The Raleigh Male Academy.

It should be a source of pride to all our people to note the success which attended the opening of the Raleigh Male Academy last Monday. There were over eighty students and the outlook is that there will be many more. There is no better preparatory school in the South at which boys may be fitted for college.

Bicycle Races.

It should be remembered that the 231st inst will be a gala day in the bicycle line. All the crack racers will be here. The prizes offered will be the best ever put out in the state for the purpose. The races will take place in the fair ground track which is now in splendid condition.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, followed by showers in extreme western portion.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:
Fair, followed by light rain Thursday evening or Friday.
Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 84; minimum temperature 63; rainfall 0.0.

"The Black Knight."

All who have read Sir Walter Scott's delightful romance "Ivanhoe" will not fail to recognize, Richard the 1st of England, the so called "Lion hearted." His dramatic career has been made the foundation of the drama to be performed at the Academy of Music next Friday night by Mr Robert Downing and his splendid company. That there will be a grand turnout of our people can hardly be doubted.

Superintendent of Health.

The selection of Dr P E Hines as county superintendent of health is not only a high compliment to one of the ablest physicians in the state but will we think, conduce much to the public service. Dr Hines is a gentleman possessed of great medical experience, which, in a position of the kind is of great value. Of course no discrimination is intended against Dr McKee, who has for the past fifteen years discharged the duties of the office in an acceptable manner.
