Died.

At the residence of F. B. Hutchings Esq 43, Elm Street, this morning, at 9 o'clock, Miss Ada Culbreth, daughter of Rev. B. B. Culbreth, of Kirtland in the 13th year of her age. The interment will take place at Mt. Olive, N. C.

A Good Selection.

It is stated that Mr. Don Gilliam, of Tarboro, has been selected to deliver the memorial address in Raleigh next year, the subject being the Life and Services of Maj. General W. D. Pender. The orator and theme are alike happy ones. Mr. Gilliam occupies an enviable place in the literary ranks of the State, and there is no subject affording more of interest than the life of General Pender.

Resumption.

The first sign of returning confidence seems to consist in the resumption of the ordinary channels of business by the New York banks. This will of course give encouragement throughout the country, and we hope to see that all the banks of the South will follow suit. Indeed it would seem to be necessary for a full and quick movement of the crops. When these commence to go forward the volume of currency will naturally increase. There are, better times at hand.

A Fracas.

This morning quite a difficulty at the fair grounds between the keeper, Mr. Stafford, Mr. Yearby, his son in law, and a colored man named Jasper Norwood. There are two versions to the matter, Mr. Stafford making one statement and the colored man another. It is agreed, however, that the matter arose about the place of storage of some cotton. In the quarrel Mr. Stafford struck Norwood a blow over the left eye with a hammer, producing a painful, but not dangerous wound. The matter will undergo judicial investigation, but perhaps not until tomorrow, and we refrain from further comment until fully looked into.

A Noted Tour.

Mr Robert Downing's tour which begins the second week of September will touch nearly all of the states from the Atlantic Ocean to the Rocky Mountains, including the South Atlantic and Gulf States. In all probability Mr Downing will make a three months' tour of the Pacific Coast playing, possibly, in San Francisco from two to four weeks. An offer has been made him to make the trip to the Pacific slope with high assurances that it will be a most successful one. Mr Downing has played in every state of the Union, with the exception of those adjacent to the Golden Gate.

Nash square presents a beautiful appearance, but it still may be made better. It should be kept up to the highest standard possible.
