

TURN OUT.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce Should Be Out in Force Tonight.

It has been suggested to us to urge most strenuously upon the members of the chamber of commerce to attend their meeting tonight. It is beyond doubt that there has been too much delinquency in the matter of attendance of late, and consequently the chamber has not fully come up to what was expected of it. The meeting tonight is one of too much importance to be overlooked. It is a meeting at which proper and full organization for the coming twelve months is to be effected and there is a large amount of business that should be referred to committees at once. We hope that the next year may develop some important measures for the good of our city, and in these, the adjunct of the chamber with the board of aldermen, is almost an absolute necessity. Let every member be promptly on hand.

Look After It.

We have heard a suggestion which we think a most admirable one and which will, we believe, relieve to a great extent the travel to this city from the northwestern part of the county. As it now is most or all of the country wagons arriving from that direction have to traverse the entire length of the village of Oberlin, entering the Hillsboro road at the point where the old Temple store used to stand, or else come in by the Williamson farm and enter the city at the foot of Halifax street. This could be avoided, if the road turning out near the old Harris farm at the end of the Oberlin road and running to the city through Brooklyn was placed in a proper condition. We would respectfully suggest to our county commissioners to require the superintendent, Mr. McMackin, to put this road in good repair.

Aside from the convenience otherwise rendered, the carts, &c from the country would avoid meeting the street cars, which causes at times fright to horses endangering life and limb. We hope this proposition will be looked after at once. It is much needed.

A Pleasant Place for Leisure Hours.

We are glad to learn that the attendance upon the rooms of the Y M C A. have rapidly increased with September, so that now there are nearly 100 visits a day. We know of no more delightful place than the Y M C A. rooms. The reading room is supplied with all the papers, daily and weeklies, magazines, religious and scientific journals &c &c, that could be desired. In the room of amusements there is employment for all, and in the gymnasium both fun and healthful exercise to be had.

Every young man in the city, strangers and all should make free use of this pleasant place provided for them.

Entertainment.

Another delightful entertainment will be given at the ladies auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association on Friday night the 15th inst. There will be novelties such as have never heretofore been introduced in Raleigh. Among these will be the young ladies "Milk Maids Drill" which will be introduced in appropriate costume. A grand concert will also be a special feature.

Chamber of Commerce.

The monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held tonight at the mayor's office at 8:30 o'clock sharp. It is expected that the new committees will be announced and work mapped out for the coming year. We earnestly hope there will be a large attendance.

Some complaint is made of boisterous conduct by young men at the Union Depot last night. We are glad to learn that efficient steps are being taken to have such conduct remedied in future.

We are informed by a gentleman who is probably in a position to know, that there will possibly be no changes in the force at the revenue office before October 1st.

The marriage of two of our popular young townspeople is announced to take place at Edenton Street M E church tonight.

Personal Mention.

Mr Geo P Howell, of Goldsboro, is in the city.

Miss Cornelia Bailey is visiting friends in Durham.

Mrs Charise A Brown has gone to Leesville on a visit to her parents.

We regret to learn that our old friend Mr Miles Goodwin is still quite sick.

Mr John B Collins, foreman of the News Observer Chronicle composing room, is sick.

Hon W A B Branch, member of congress from the 1st N C District, is in the city.

Mr R M Brown, of Haywood, Chatham county, is in the city stopping at Mrs H J Brown's.

Rev Dr J B Bobbitt, wife and son Alex have returned from Littleton and Panacea Springs. Dr Bobbitt's health, we are glad to state, has improved considerably.

Mrs I Rosenthal left this morning for the northern markets to purchase her fall and winter goods. She proposes to have the finest stock this fall that she has ever had in this city.

Judge Thos C Fuller has returned to the city from Santa Fe, New Mexico, where he has been to attend a session of the court of private claims. He seems to be in the enjoyment of excellent health.

A party consisting of Major R S Tucker, Mrs James Boylan, Mrs Ed H Lee and Misses Bessie, Sadie and Minnie Tucker left for the world's fair this morning via the Seaboard Air Line and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

Alabama.

This beautiful typical southern play will hold the boards at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. In all its magnificent scenic effects, its allusions and its reminiscences it carries us back to the old time chivalry of our beloved southland while there is nothing to revive in the least degree anything like painful memories between the sections. The plot is good and most admirably blended in all its details. It will be a special delight to our people to know that in the company will be Mr Frank C Bangs, so well known for his masterly performances. He will, we hope, receive a most cordial reception at the hands of the Raleigh public.

Good Pickings.

As far as we are able to learn the new Collector of this Internal Revenue district will have eight appointments to make in the office of this city at salaries ranging from $1000 to $870; two stamp deputies, at Reidsville and Durham, at $1200 each; 12 district deputies at $1000 salary and $500 yearly for expenses. One general store keeper and gauger at $3 a day and about 10 storekeepers and gaugers at $2 a day. There are about 100 grain distilleries in the district, mainly in Alamance and Guilford counties.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Rain today or tonight, followed by fair in the interior.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

Rain on Wednesday. Thursday and Friday likely to be fair and warm.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 83; minimum temperature 70; rain, all 0.80.

Cut Down the Weeds.

We would earnestly suggest that Street Commissioner Blake put out some of his men with grass blades and cut down the weeds along the sidewalks. If this work is done now we shall be free from them for the balance of the fall and winter.

Washed Sidewalks.

The recent heavy rains have made very bad washes in very many of the sidewalks and with dark nights pedestrians are having a bad time getting along. Can't Chief Heatt give attention to these sidewalks.
