CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Summer drinks have been the order today. Looks like real genuine Indian summer.

Last real hot spell of the year so they say.

Good time to catch hay fever if you want it.

Uncle Hiram is the great sensation of the week.

Get ready for the fair. It is going to be a hummer.

The present hot spell is suggestive of congestive chills.

Thermometer today climbed towards the nineties.

Accessions continue to be made to the penitentiary force of convicts.

The petrified man was taken away today. He couldn't walk himself.

These moonlight nights are just lovely. Cool enough to be pleasant.

The ladies are already out in force looking for that 'love of a bonnet' for fall and winter.

The health of the convicts in the penitentiary continues unusually good for the season.

The song of the mosquito is now heard in earnest, and he is presenting his bill with exceeding promptness.

Quite a large crowd of country people were on the cotton exchange today, and it begins to look like business had sprung up in earnest.

It is to be hoped that our business men will make renewed efforts this season to increase the receipts of tobacco in Raleigh. A good trade in the weed might be built up in our city.

Ex-Gov Holt is still at Buffalo Springs where we are pleased to learn that his health is daily improving. Gov Holt is beloved by our entire people, all of whom delight to do him honor.

The fact that the yellow fever is on the increase in Brunswick Ga., calls for the most precautionary proceedings at all points in the south. There is no telling when a stray case may reach the interior.

The establishment of Mr A Dughi will hereafter be open from 7 a. m. to 1 o'clock, at night. Parties wishing oysters or other eatables can take notice. Fruits, cakes and bread can be had at these hours.

"It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good." So said an old citizen today, and, continued he, even if our money is put upon an entirely gold basis it will work good for North Carolina in opening up many of her abandoned mines. Before the gold fever in California in 1848, North Carolina furnished much of the metal.

Why not again?

The death of Harvey J Bagwell which occurred yesterday at the agricultural and mechanical college, was under the circumstances a peculiarly sad event. He had just commenced his studies on the 18th inst. and had up to that time been in usual good health. During the afternoon he was seized with a congestive chill and died after a night of intense suffering. He was a young man of most exemplary character and his death is much regretted by faculty and scholars.

Our well known fellow citizen, Mr James Fauquier Taylor, is rather about the petrified man, and Entertainment.

A musical entertainment will be given at Brookside park tomorrow night.

Haywood's band has been engaged for the occasion and a delightful time can be expected as the moonlight nights are beautiful.

The admission to the grounds will be free but a fee of five cents will be charged for reserved seats to meet expenses of putting them up.

This will be a fine time for our people to enjoy recreation. The street cars will run regularly to the gate of the park.

Acknowledgment.

Our friend Mr A Dughi, has received a very gratifying letter from which we make the following extract.

After expressing thanks for the elegant grapes sent to Greensboro on the 14th inst the letter continues.

"Allow me to express our entire satisfaction at everything you furnished (consisting of cream, fruits, cakes &c.) We were much pleased and would certainly recommend you to any one wishing good cream fruit &c."

Sincerely,
(Signed) LOTTIE PEYTON
