VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1893.

NO. 131

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Begins to look more like fall. Predictions of frost are now in order. It begins to feel like oysters in earnest.

The grand jury has gotten down to hard work.

The fair is the great event in the near future.

Judge Shuford dispatches business with the utmost promptness.

Fine operatic company at Metropolitan Hall next Monday night.

Secure seats to the "English Sports" at the Academy of Music next Thursday night.

Large number of country people in the city in attendance on the Superior Court.

Good middling cotton is quoted at from 7 1/2 to 8. This looks like times are getting better.

The market was rather slimly supplied with vegetables today. There was a stray watermelon or so.

Another outlet from the city west is badly needed. Perhaps we will get it, in the "Sweet by and by."

The official program for the approaching state fair will be one of the most elaborate ever issued in the state.

The first number of the University Magazine for the session will soon be issued. It will be a number of unusual interest.

A banquet will be given by Gov and Mrs Carr at the Executive Mansion tonight, complimentary to the State officers.

The Caraleigh mills are now putting in four days in the week. It is hoped that circumstances will allow a full run soon.

The court room is a perfect beehive of disinterested lookers. In the meantime many hands are needed in the country to pick out cotton.

The farmers and mechanics special excursion to the World's Fair will leave the city tomorrow morning at 6:30 o'clock via the Seaboard Air Line.

It is expected that a series of games of base ball will be played in this city next week between the Raleigh team and the young ladies team of New York. It will be a novel and exciting event.

The appropriation for the University of North Carolina in the matter of improvements has been most judiciously expended, and added many comforts to the students.

If something is not done on Hillsboro street between the railroad bridge and Maj Tucker's corner, by the time the fair commences there will be a many a broken wheel. The street is getting rough.

The price of reserved seats for Helen Russell's English Sports at the Academy of Music next Thursday night will be 75 cents. They are now on sale at John Y MacRae's. General admission 50c; gallery 35 cents.

There will be young men's meetings at the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school rooms at 8 o'clock every Tuesday night. Thirty minutes talk by the pastor; subject "Personal work." All invited.

Young men's missionary union meeting at the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School rooms at 8 o'clock to night. Thirty minutes talk by the pastor. Subject—"Personal work." Every body invited; come. This meeting is held every Tuesday night.

The ladies of the Cross Bearers Circle, of King's Daughters, will give an "Experience Tea," at the residence of Mrs. C. G. Smith, 118 North Wilmington Street, Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. All friends of the circle invited to attend. Contributions from 25 cents and up will be gladly received and appropriated to providing for the wants of the needy.

Equinox.

Messrs C A Sherwood & Co are fully up with the times in their estimate of the seasons. In the VISITOR tomorrow they will tell all about 'equinox,' its bearing on trade, &c In anticipation of the coming in of the fleecy staple they have purchased and are now setting before the public such a tempting array of fall and winter goods as have never before been seen in Raleigh. They have truly anticipated the public wants from any point of view. Don't fail to read what they have to say and call and make your selections. Mr "Claud" Sherwood will be strictly at his post to show you around.

Metropolitan Hall.

On Monday night next our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing a performance of the highest order at Metropolitan hall. Miss Tomahlan, a young lady of rare skill and experience in the musical and dramatic line, will appear in some of her chosen roles accompanied by a most competent company. She has lately returned from Europe after an absence of three years, during which she became most proficient in her elements of comedy and opera. She possesses a mellow, clear, high soprano voice showing careful and painstaking study. It will be an event of an extraordinary character in the operatic and comedy line, and all lovers of high artistic dramatic entertainments should prepare to give her a most cordial greeting.
