

The Daily Evening Visitor

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1893.

NO. 134

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The crowd around the court house is thinning out some.

Fires these mornings are not only enjoyable but healthy.

The Peoples Bank of Winston, is now fully under way again.

Cotton coming in freely today. The market is reported as strong.

The docket of the Superior court is being rapidly dispensed with.

"Shade" Jones, a colored man well known in this city, died this morning.

The Supreme court has about finished the docket from the first district.

Look out for the fair programme. It will soon be out in flaming announcements.

"Her Fidelity" at Metropolitan hall next Monday night. It is the great society drama of the day.

The main chandelier in the new Trinity church at Durham cost $1,200 and will contain 120 electric lights.

The lovely month of October will soon be upon us with its persimmons, possum and other autumnal duties.

This delightful weather brings out the ladies in force to look after "the love of a bunnet" for fall and winter.

The Statesville Landmark has just reached its nineteenth year. It is one of the best weekly journals in the south.

We have no doubt the electric railway will be put in first class trim to accommodate the travel expected during fair week.

As the world's fair is to close on the 31st of October it will be too late for the exhibits to be removed to our state fair. This is unfortunate, unless we anticipate it a week or so.

Can't our chamber of commerce do something to spur up the tobacco trade here. There is no better market for the weed than Raleigh, and the people should be informed of it.

The revenue receipts of our neighbor Durham from January 1st, to September 1st, were $135,394.63. And yet the matter of a public building is far from being settled. This should not be thus.

The ladies of the Antiquity society are anxiously waiting for returns from different parts of the state. Those having relics should send them at once. The state librarian is now ready to receive them.

It is said there is some scarcity of cotton picking hands. A look around the court house or the mayor's office when a trial is in progress, would develop any amount of labor if it could be utilized. By the way, ought not this nuisance of idlers lounging around court rooms be abated.

We hope the board of county commissioners will give special orders to the superintendent of roads to have Hillsboro road carefully examined and put in first class trim by the fall, and we hope that the board of aldermen will see to it that portion of the street from the railroad bridge to Tucker's corner is worked. Both are necessary.

Remember the mission rooms now as the winter is fast approaching. Please help us to clothe the children, and especially make the aged women comfortable. The merchant, in clearing out the old stock, many remnants are thrown aside; they will help to make a quilt, an apron or skirt. Anything will be acceptable. Please consider that you, each one have an interest in our mission, and we urge one and all to help us, to anything. Have you pieces of carpet that are no use to you send them to the mission rooms. Would also ask those that have flowers, you would do much good by sending a bouquet now and then to brighten up the place, that the poor come to daily.

Complimentary.

The young ladies of Raleigh propose to give a german at the L'Alle-gro club this evening complimentary to the Misses Harden of New York. The dancing will commence promptly at 9 o'clock.

Elected.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad held yesterday W S Chadwick, was elected President, F O Roberts, Secretary, S L Dill Superintendent, P L Pearsall, Attorney.

Compromised

The case of Alex Strouach, Jr, and Percy Whitaker was happily settled in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon. At the conclusion of the evidence Mr Percy Whitaker addressed the court and asked that judgment be suspended on payment of cost. This course shows magnanimity highly to be commended and is praised by all.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, slightly warmer in the interior.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity:

On Saturday; Fair weather.
Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 63; minimum temperature 49; rainfall 00.

The following is the synopsis of the weather today.
High pressure, with clear cool weather prevails east of the Mississippi.

Generally cloudy weather, with considerable rain, prevails in the west.
An extensive storm seems to be central west of Kansas.

The Wilmington Star has passed the 26th mile post and has now entered on the 27th year of its existence. It is not only the oldest but one of the most interesting and newsy journals in the state. We extend to Bro Bernard our most cordial congratulations, and trust he will continue to prosper to a green old age.

The latest information from Rev Dr Black, of the Oxford Orphan Asylum is to the effect that at least 25 orphans are to be sent away for the want of funds to keep them. Is not this a reflection on the charitable people of North Carolina.

Kope Elias has returned from Washington, and is devoting himself to the duties of his office. He says he is satisfied with the situation and he thinks his confirmation a mere matter of time—and so we go.

Special meeting of Hiram Lodge, No 40, A F and A M, tonight for work, at 8 o'clock. Prompt attendance desired.
W S PRIMROSE, W M.
E B THOMAS, Secretary.
