RALEIGH, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1893.

NO. 135

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Very little sickness in the city now. State fair is a little over two weeks off.

Scuppernongs getting a little scarce in market.

Cotton's selling today at about 7¢ for the better quality.

The market today was well supplied with splendid beef and mutton.

Posters of the programme for the fair are out. They are beauties.

Lots of country people in town today, and trade is reported brisk.

The grass is being cut in Moore square today. There is a huge pile of it.

Secure seats for "Her Fidelity" at Metropolitan hall next Monday night.

The stock of New Berne Building and Loan Association is now worth $90 per share.

Secure your seats for "Her Fidelity" from John Y MacRae at once. There is going to be a 1.

The "Odd Fellows," is the title of a new weekly just published in Wilmington by L L Lucas.

The State of North Carolina has been awarded two medals for its forestry display at the World's Fair.

The fifth annual convention of the Y M C A., of Charlotte district, will assemble at Gastonia Oct 6th, to 8th.

The army officer who has been detailed for duty the past ten years at Bingham's school is to be retained.

Pawnee Bill's show will perform in Charlotte October 10th, the high tax notwithstanding. Can't the capital city have a showing?

A facetious gentleman remarked this morning that President Cleveland was usually right, but he was writing almost too much just at this time.

Another new feature of the coming fair is a special trotting race. It is for horses eligible to the 227 class and free for all. The purse is $300. Four entries are required with entry fee of ten per cent payable on or before October 13th. The race is to take place on Thursday of fair week.
