NO. 136

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locas Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Splendid autumnal weather. "Her Fidelity" at Metropolitan hall tonight

Get your seats for "Her Fidelity" at Metropolitan hall tonight.

Court will probably adjourn by Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

The county commissioners are in session today.

Centre Lodge K of P will hold their meeting tonight in their new rooms in the Academy of Music.

Don't fail to go to Metropolitan hall tonight and see the most beautiful and fashionable play of the season.

Rev Dr N B Cobb has been holding a very successful revival at Carthage N C.

There will be a meeting of the board of stewards of Central church tonight at 7:45. Let every member be present

It will take all this week to clean out the jail and clear up the docket of our criminal docket and not a capital case to be tried.

Mr D T Swindell has just returned from the northern cities. Call at his store and he will show you the result.

Some of the most excellent attractions for the winter season have been booked for Metropolitan hall Miss Foma Hanlon and her company which appears tonight have been requested to remain here and play Tuesday night.

Fair week will soon be upon us and some attention should be given to many of our sidewalks. Why in the name of common justice will not the city administration grapple with this sidewalk question. Where, oh where is anticipated action of the chamber of commerce committee on sidewalks?

Mr Hal Ayer is adorning the bill boards with handsome, attractive posters of the coming State Fair which promises to be the greatest week of real interest and enjoyment of the year. A large attendance is anticipated and with good weather Raleigh will have thousands of delighted visitors.

The Raleigh Advertiser, published by Edward M Ennis, at 119 North Salisbury street, is out this week with a page advertisement and two columns of reading matter descriptive of the State Fair. The Advertiser is one of the best advertising mediums in the State, as 6,000 copies are printed on each issue.

The management of the new Academy of Music has just closed a contract for the appearance here for the first time of "THE HIDDEN HAND," on next Thursday and Friday nights. The Hidden Hand is one of the most thrilling and interesting plays in the country and something excellent may be expected. Watch the bill boards and the newspapers.

The Bird Law.

The partridge hunting season does not begin until November 1st, and end last until March 15th. At any other season of the year the statutes of North Carolina makes it a misdemeanor punishable by fine ten dollars to kill, shoot, trap or net any partridges, quail, deers, robins, larks, mocking birds or wild turkeys. Many people are of the opinion that the law only applies to the partridge but the above is the language of the statute.

A Working Jury.

The regular petty jury of the Criminal court last week was a most excellent one, attentive to all the evidence, argument of counsel and the charge of the court carefully considering every case given to them and rendering just verdicts. This jury did much work of universal satisfaction and is worthy of the highest praise.

Cruelty to Animals.

There is a growing demand for the formation of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Several years ago we had such an organization of which Judge Spier Whitaker was president, Justice H H Roberts was secretary and A M McPheeters, Sr, was treasurer. A constitution and by-laws were printed in the VISITOR and a large number of copies struck off. Mr McPheeters we understand has some of these papers now. Let us revive the old society or organize a new one. We would suggest for president B P Williamson, Esq, with Mr W C McMackin as the general agent of the society to prosecute all violations of the law reported to him by any member of the society. Mr H H Roberts would make a most excellent secretary and no better treasurer could be selected than Mr McPheeters.
