Reopened.
 On Monday next, October 2d, the Central hotel on the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets will be reopened under the management of Mr D G Conn, as proprietor. This hotel is well situated in the business part of the city, and under the control of Mr Conn the public can look for good accommodations at the most reasonable rates. We cordially recommend it to the patronage of the public.

Still Another.
 The Charlotte News tells of a gentleman who saw a large hawk sailing leisurely around looking after a terrapin crawling on the ground. The hawk flew down to take in the "land traveler" when the latter caught hold of the hawk's neck and held it until a man came up and killed him. The next is in order.
