VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOMBER 4, 1893.

NO. 138

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The jail is fast being cleaned out. Lots of marriages to take place next week.

The State Fair is booming up in all respects.

Attorney General Frank H Osborne has returned to the city from Chicago.

"Dr Bill's" at Metropolitan hall next Monday night.

"The Hidden Hand" at the Academy of Music tomorrow night.

The fair will soon be here. Let us all get ready for it.

The Winston chamber of commerce has held a meeting and urged the re-arrangement of the Sherman act.

Supreme court is getting on with cases from the second term.

Prof Davis and his dogs. They will soon be on the board of county commissioners.

The market today was rather wimpy supplied with vegetables, etc.

President E & Smith, of the North Carolina Industrial Association, has resigned to take effect from this date.

The marriage of Mr James E Malloy, of New York, and Miss Sallie B Dunn is announced to take place in this city, October 10th.

Regular meeting of the board of aldermen next Friday night. Some important matters ought to demand its attention.

The man who declared he could raise Mrs Abbott, has caved in. He would have gone fishing today but for the rain.

The rain today has been rather a drawback on business. The cotton receipts, however, have been considerable.

Mrs G M Jones has removed her residence from North West street to 818 West Edenton street where she will in future carry on her business of dress making.

There are all sorts of rambles of combinations, etc. for the next Congressional race in this district, with which we have nothing to do except as mere matter of news.

The great panorama of the battle of Gettysburg will probably be here during the fair. Those who have seen it, say it is one of the grandest shows of the kind now on exhibition.

The regular monthly meeting of Epworth League No 24 will be held in Edenton Street Sunday school room immediately after prayer meeting tonight.

Superintendent McMackin will receive some very considerable additions to his force from the present term of the Superior Court. This will come in all right for working the roads in time for the winter.

The "Hidden Hand" is one of the most beautiful and interesting plays now on the stage. It will hold the boards at the Academy of Music tomorrow night. Secure seats at Jno Y Mackee's.

Mr S M Parish left this morning for Frankfort to look after a lot of painting he is having done there for Mr Scott. He is expected to return to the city about Friday.

Academy of Music.

On Thursday and Friday evening, October 5 and 6, "The Hidden Hand" company play at the Academy of Music. The company is composed of well known artists, such as Ed H Loy, Jess Pickens, Geo Mackay, Frank Munnell, Frank McCoy, Joba Omohundro and Fred Johnston. The ladies are Misses Agnes Parcell, Alice Parcell and Marion Burleigh. The company is under the management of John J Reddick, a well known K of P. The company carry their own scenery and the finest of costumes. They play here but two nights, October 5 and 6.

THE FAIR.

Everything Pointing to a Great Success.

Nothing is wanting but fair weather to make the coming fair historical as a pleasant and interesting success. The management has been exceedingly fortunate in everything up to date. The corps of marshals under Chief Marshal J Bryan Gilmes will be the finest ever seen in the state. The Second Regiment Band which will make music during the week is going ready to break its already record as a musical organization. "The one John's Wild West Show is coming and will arrive on time. Address from Trenton, N J. Hughes via Pa and other points where this show has given perfect success. A $3000 racing race has been arranged for Wednesday, and a $200 trotting race for Thursday during the week. The foot ball teams of Wake Forest and Trinity Colleges are getting ready for a great game on Tuesday, the opening day, and on that same day Sena or Vance will be here. Entries for exhibits are being made every day now and the list of side attractions is steadily growing.

"Dr. Bill" at the Pike.

Much had been heard of the coming of "Dr. Bill," and much was expected. No disappointment was expressed last night at P. Ke's by the large audience assembled to see the New York success. There was the best kind of laughter. Everybody seemed to love the house throughly pleased with the "Doctor's" mode of proceeding his new career, and certainly gives good, old fashioned doses of it. It deserves the big success it has met with, for it is as funny a farce comedy as we have ever had here. While extremely funny, there are no horse play methods introduced to create laughter. The situations and complications are numerous, and create laughter from a lot of things. There is a big weekly business in store for this new comedy, which will certainly make any one seeing it forget that they ever had the blues. As presented at Pike's, it left little to be desired.—Charlotte Com. Gazette.
