RALEIGH, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1893.

NO. 139

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

And still the watermelon lingers, but has only a few admirers.

The grass has been cut on Moore square.

Don't fail to see "Old Hurricane" at the Academy of Music tonight.

There will be a meeting of the L'Allegro club tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

"The Hidden Hand" at the Academy of Music tonight.

Can't we have a skating rink in the parks this winter?

The market was well supplied with choice meats today.

The superior court is drawing near a close.

Get your seats for "The Hidden Hand" tonight at the Academy of Music.

Collector White still rests "like patience on a monument smiling at grief," waiting to be relieved.

The sheet for Dr. Bill's IMMENSE show at Metropolitan Hall will be open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Gov Carr has offered a reward of $300 for the capture of James Rawls who is wanted in Pitt county on a charge of murder.

The Supreme court will take up appeals from the third district next Tuesday.

We are in favor of native granite for our Confederate monument—and so say almost all of our folks.

The cotton compress is now putting in some good work. The indications are for a very busy season.

The street cars were hung up yesterday, caused from some accident to the engine at the power house.

Cotton is on the up grade, which means more business, more money, and better times generally.

Space continues to be applied for at the fair grounds, and everything indicates such an exhibit as has rarely been seen in Raleigh.

The work of preparation is still going on at the Yarboro, and this well known establishment will be in first class trim for the fair.

The many friends of the Right Rev Bishop Lyman will be pleased to learn that he has returned to the city from the mountains of North Carolina much improved in health. Mrs Lyman returned with him.

Can't our chamber of commerce spur up the tobacco trade? Every inducement should be offered the farmers to bring their weed here. Raleigh has every facility for a splendid tobacco market, but it needs push, and tact to make it what it should be.

The sidewalk on the south side of Hargett between Wilmington and Blount streets is still in a bad condition. Whenever there is a wet spell, the red clay soil sticks to the feet like wax. Can't the city afford a few more cinders in that locality?

The store which has for some time been in course of preparation for Miss Maggie Reese on the east side of Fayetteville street, square above the market, will soon be ready for occupancy. It has been remodeled in the best style and specially adapted to the millinery business. Miss Reese will remove into her new quarters as soon as possible.

The winter will soon be upon us, and the needs of the poor will necessarily be great. Let our people bear in mind the fact, that the woman's mission will receive and promptly distribute all donations. They should be most cheerfully aided by those who have an abundance of worldly goods.

Knights Templar.

A regular convocation of Raleigh Commandery, No 4, K. T. will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Masonic Hall. Visiting brothers invited to attend.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Friday: Fair weather, warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 66; minimum temperature 56; rainfall 18

The following is the synopsis of the weather for today.

The storm on the coast has moved off eastward, and a clearing condition has moved in from the west.

A second storm is central this morning over Kansas, which will cause warmer weather during the next few days.

Tonight at the Academy of Music.

"The Hidden Hand" under the management of Mr J Reddin, who is a Knight of Pythias, is one of the best comedy dramas which is traveling the south this season. This company has no so called "Star" but all the members are people of decided talent. They carry their own scenery and effects and the costumes of the ladies are very handsome. "The Hidden Hand" is a play replete with mirth and pathos and the success it enjoyed in New York is proof enough of its merit. In all it is a high toned play worthy of the patronage of Raleigh theatre goers.

EVANGELIST FIFE BACK.

Charlotte News.

The noon train today brought in Rev W P Fife, who has been in Virginia with his family nearly all the summer. He has been at Waynesboro for the last two weeks and had a great meeting there. When it closed there were four hundred converts, nearly all of whom have joined, or signified their intention of joining, the different churches. When he left he was accompanied to the train by a large number of friends.
