VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1893.

NO. 140

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Wilmington is raising a considerable amount for the Brunswick sufferers. State Senator H O Olive, of Wake county, was in the city yesterday.

Strict good middling cotton has jumped up to 7½.

Reserved seats for "Dr Bill" will be on sale at John Y MacRae's at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Alfred McRay, of New York, has been appointed a commissioner of deeds for North Carolina.

It is stated that Durham has sent more people to the World's Fair than any other town of its size in the State.

The fourth annual fair of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas will be held at Maxton, October 25th to 28th.

Don't miss seeing the "Convicts Daughter" tonight at the Academy of Music.

A banquet will be given in compliment to Col J S Carr, at the Hotel Carolina, Durham, October 12th at 8 o'clock.

"The Convicts Daughter" at the Academy of Music tonight. It is a splendid play, performed by one of the best companies now on the road. They should be greeted by a rousing house.

Reddin's company of players will appear tonight in the "Convicts Daughter."

Special meeting of Hiram lodge, No 49, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock for work in the second degree. Members of this and other lodges are invited to attend. W S Primrose, W M; E B Thomas, secretary.

We were pleased to meet, today, Mr H W Storm, who represents the Wilfred Clarke company, which will appear at the Academy of Music in the near future. Mr Storm is a live, energetic gentleman, and he promises one of the best shows of the season.

F. S. McCord, the Boy Nonperiel Pianist, and the proud possessor of twenty four gold and diamond medals won in all parts of America, taking first prize in every contest he ever entered. Mr. McCord appeared before the Queen of England and the crowned heads of Europe before he was thirteen years of age. He will render on the piano tonight the following selections: The country dance. The storm. The Last Hope, and Circus parade.

Last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, we looked in at the well known establishment of Mr A Dughl. To our surprise, we discovered at the festive board, thirty six persons, twelve of whom were ladies, partaking of the good things of life which our celebrated caterer had set before them. We are informed that this is but a usual sight at this great epicurean saloon where the finest oysters, and all that is delightful to the taste can be procured at nearly all hours.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says of Reddin's latest melodrama. The Convicts Daughter Mr Reddin's company of players appeared last night before a packed house and every point of the play was taken up by the audience with curtain calls after each act. The company came direct from Boston playing one night at Pittsburg, the play had a run of 200 nights last season in Boston playing to standing room only for 100 nights. Mr Reddin deserves great credit for the version is his own. He has none but the best artists in his cast. Several of national repute Ed. Day of the old Boston Stock, Purcell Sisters and Jess Pickens the original tramp Mr Pickens being greeted with storms of applause on his each appearance. We predict a big weeks business for the play. Mr Reddin will take his company south for the winter being booked in all the best southern cities where he deserves a great business.
