TIMONY.

CONVICTED ON PURJURED TES-

Gov Flower has directed that Samuel E Wayman, who is serving a life sentence for the murder of Emory Thayer in 1885, be set at liberty on Wednesday October 11. Wayu an was convicted in Livingston county, in September 1890, chiefly on the testimony of one Swartz, who said that while he and Wayman were committing a burglary in Thayer's house, Wayman shot Thayer.

Wayman was sentenced to death. But Gov Hill thought there was doubt as to Wayman's guilt, and commuted the sentence to imprisononment for life. About a year ago Swartz, who was serving a term in Auburn prison for burglary, was taken sick and died, but shortly before his death he confessed to the chaplain of the prison that his testimony at Wayman's trial was false, and that Wayman was entirely in nocent After a careful consideration of the whole case, the Governor has become convinced that Wayman was unjustly convicted, and has therefore directed that be released.

SHE GAGGED THE BABY.

"Please hold my baby a moment" said a fashionably dressed and handsome woman to Walter F Talcott at the union station in Philadelphia the other morning. Talcott tock the baby and dandled it on his knee. There was a white bonnet with a long robe, from under which blue socks occasionally peeped. The child was singularly silent. The mother skipped out of the station

At 8 o'clock Walter's knee was tired and he gave the baby to the station agent who at once saw that it was suffocating He pried open its mouth and took therefrom a handkerchief with which the mother had gagged it. It was nearly strangled. It was turned over to City Missionary Swan. The police are after the woman.

A man who does his best to do the condition of the place and the wisdom of her plans caused him to say: 'I'll advance all the money you want this year." At the end of three years she had paid the mortgage, sent her sons and daughters to college, and her plantation was universally confessed to be the best im-roved one in the country. Not very long after she married the young man whom she had placed in charge of a store she had opened. The only unpleasant thing about this interesting narrative is the fact that she married that young man after he had made herself so

Mr Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill, writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price; and in addition to send subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months: one each week. Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for forty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony, Trollope, A Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Viss Thackery and Jules Verne. If ou wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and four first number of the fifty-two n els (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail.
