LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, OCT. 12, 1893.

SHORT, SHARP AND SNAPPY.

There is a manifest weakness in the U S Senate's physical endurance department.

Keep your head skinned for the job in that scheme to annex the Territory of Lower California to the United States. If we are not mistaken that alleged English-American syndicate, which claims to have bought the property, is merely a blind.

The Choctaw Indians should now be considered thoroughly civilized, their treasurer having "skipped" leaving a shortage of something like $100,000. Considering the amount he had to handle no Chicago or New York man could have made a heavier haul.

Kaiser Billy is now making faces at the Berlin town council. It had the nerve to refuse to provide at public expense a playground for his royal "kinds."

Insurance risks on cotton gins are not considered guilt edged business just now.

The principal reason why hazing is still practiced in college authorities were once boys themselves and know how it works.

If compromise is such a very undesirable thing as some people are now trying to make it appear to be in connection with silver legislation, how about the U S Constitution? That and every amendment added thereto represents a compromise between conflicting interests.

October is the month of hunters, and in the neighborhood of our cities many things are strolling around in hunter's outfits that it would be difficult to properly classify.

He who has never been tempted has little right to boast of his honor or his honesty.

The man who didn't know exactly how the yacht race would turn out has yet to be found. Those who lost money did it by betting against their judgment. What a curious animal man is, anyway.

Secretary Morton seems to have a good idea of what is the first duty of a member of the cabinet, to judge by recent events in Nebraska politics.

Boss Crocker evidently wants Bourke Cochran to realize that it is better to be born humble than eloquent.

The Ohio campaign is being made just as exciting as though the result was in doubt.

The politicians view of the Van Alen nomination was eminently practical. They said in effect to the senate: "You turn this man down and no more big campaign contributions we'll get. See!" The senators saw, Ambassador Van Alen makes his entrance upon the stage of diplomacy.

If Senator Blackburn has the proof that the European banking house of Rothschild carried gold from the United States at a loss, for the purpose of forcing a panic and influencing legislation he should lose no time in producing it.

The son in law of the late Don Pedro by going to Brazil shows that his ambition largely overbalances his good sense.

If that Jersey idea of "organizing Christian vote" should become popular some politicians might find themselves hunting for a job.

What percentage of the people is after all represented by bankers and board of trade men?

After his pulling Van Alen through the senate no one can doubt the strength of ex-Secretary Whitney's "pull."

Ex-Senator Platt, of New York, seems to have been 'out of politics' only in the newspapers.

It is a case of the "kettle calling the pot black" for either political party in New York to refer to the late state convention as boss ridden affairs.

Of all the fool disputes those that occur on religion are the most useless; they convince nobody and prove nothing, except that man should control his propensity to dispute.

There is a disposition in some quarters to mistake bull headedness for statesmanship.

WHAT THEY WANTED.

I was doing some business in a bank in a new town out west when about thirty men came crowding into the room. One of them had been appointed spokesman, and when the proprietor of the bank asked what the trouble was this man replied:

"It's jist this, Jim—we can't make out that monthly statement you got out yesterday."

"What's wrong with it?"

"She says deposits amount to $7,000 and cash on hand $9,000."

"Well, that's correct, and I can't see where you have any fault to find," said she president.

"Yes, but the boys don't go much on figgers. Figgers kin be twisted all around, you know. Hev you got them ere $9,000 handy by?"

"I have."

"Waal, won't you jest stand upon a chair and wave th t money in the air a few times and let the boys see the color of it? Don't want to put you to any special trouble, you know, but the crowd kinder wants to feel sure about it."

The banker got the money from the safe and followed the suggestion and asked if they were satisfied.

"That's all right," replied the spokesman. "Ain't much on figgers, but we know money when we see it. Them deposits is $7,000, and you've got $9,000 to pay 'em. That's chunk up and no discount."

"Anything else?"

"Just one little trifle. It's kinder got around town that you are goin' over to Yanktown tomorrow. Before you start just count them $9,000 into the safe, lock 'er up as tight as a drum and then call in two or three of the boys to watch 'er while you're gone. We ain't showin' any lack of confidence, but we is givin' you a pinter on how to run a bank in this town without gettin' yer neck into a slip knot!"—M Quad.

THE BILLVILLE BANNER.

The recent cyclone caught us on the road, half-way between Chicago and Billville, and we had free transportation the rest of the way.

We learn that the president makes a daily prayer. This bears out our statement, made three weeks before the election, that a politician can get religion.

We regret that we can't name any more children after Mr Cleveland. All the young ones born in this section are boys and he ain't on that line.

We ain't heard anything about the tariff since they took down the democratic platform.

All lynching is wrong, and ought to be stopped. Rope comes high, while wood is powerful cheap.—Atlanta Constitution.

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price; and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for forty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony, Trollope, A Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail.
