

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1893.

NO. 146

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Always a calm after a storm.

Unconditional repeal is a back number.

The great road machine has arrived.

The street cars recommenced running today.

The center of the storm yesterday is said to have been nearly over Raleigh.

The colored Agricultural and Mechanical college at Greensboro, will open in a month.

Mrs Frank G Swaine, of Alexandria, Va., is in the city stopping at the Central Hotel.

The alarm of fire turned in from box No 41 today about 12 o'clock was a false one. There was no fire.

Mr Thomas W Mason of the Railroad Commission, is on a tour of inspection west of the Blue Ridge.

A large number of trees, limbs, &c, were blown down yesterday. The city is scattered with small branches and brush.

Watch the bill board's at Metropolitan Hall for the great society attraction of fair week which will appear there.

Please call at the Mission Rooms and supply yourself with the minutes of the last convention of the King's Daughters which was held in Oxford last May.

Go secure your seats for Metropolitan Hall for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday night, and avoid the rush which is being made for the most desirable portions of the hall.

Mr Augustus Bradley, of Henderson, has entered upon his duties as night clerk for Mr J Hal Bobbitt. Mr Bradley is a most efficient pharmacist, being a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

Gov Carr, Chief Justice Shepherd, Dr P E Fines, Dr R H Lewis, Messrs R H Battle, F B Daney, C E Johnson and many others left for Tarboro this morning where they attend the consecration ceremonies tomorrow.

Mr J Hal Bobbitt wants an unlimited number of people to call on him at his drug emporium where he has some important information to deliver as to everything in his line of business. No better house of the kind in North Carolina.

Masonic.

Hiram Lodge, No. 40, A F and A M, will meet Monday evening, October 16th, in regular communication. The membership are earnestly requested to attend. Work in the third degree. Members of other lodges cordially invited. E B THOMAS, Sec'y. W S PRIMROSE, W M.

KINDNESS, GENTLENESS, LOVE.

Always Command the Respect of the Educated and Refined.

Prof Gentry with his army of educated ponies and dogs will appear on Halifax street, under their tent, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 p m and matinee Wednesday at 3 p m. One of the secrets of the wonderful success of Prof Gentry is that he is as kind and gentle to the little beauty Shetlands and dogs as a fond mother is to the children she loves. He has only to tell them what he wants them to do, and it is done. They all seem anxious and willing to perform their parts as any one who might expect to be liberally rewarded. This may partially be from the fact that they so thoroughly enjoy the visit of the audience on the stage after each performance and seem disappointed when a visit is not made to them. They thoroughly enjoy the sweetmeats and caresses of the ladies and children. Admission: Children, 10 cents; adults, 20 cents.

Lost

On Thursday night at the wedding at Christ church, a child's tan colored felt hat, trimmed with beaver and red satin ribbon. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to 504 East Jones street.
