

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1893.

NO. 148

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

They are here by thousands.

Very little cotton received today.

Durham was here in force yesterday.

All the banks will be closed tomorrow.

The weather cannot be improved upon.

New specialties at the Academy tomorrow night.

Mabel Paige in Chick at the Academy tomorrow night.

Go see the Convict's Daughter at Metropolitan hall tonight.

The whoop of the college boys yesterday rivaled the Indians.

Bewitching Mabel Paige at the Academy tomorrow night.

The speech of Gov Vance yesterday met the highest expectations.

Little Mabel Page in "Chick" at the Academy tomorrow night.

New singing and dancing specialties at the Academy tomorrow night.

Wake Superior Court for the trial of civil cases commences next Monday.

The road convention will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the senate chamber.

A beautiful new carpet and matting have been put down in the mayor's office.

A concert will be given in capitol square tomorrow evening, by the Second Regiment Band, commencing at 7:30.

The compress is at work and the cotton platform at the Raleigh and Gaston depot begins to look like solid business.

Notwithstanding the large crowd the most perfect order prevails in the city. This speaks well for our people and officials.

Don't miss a visit to Metropolitan hall tonight to see Jess Pickens and the Purcell Sisters in the Convict's Daughter.

Regular monthly meeting of the brotherhood of St Andrew will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the chapel of Christ church.

The young ladies of St Mary's school and Peace institute will see "She Stoops to Conquer" at the new Academy of Music tonight.

A considerable number of delegates to the road convention have arrived, and the outlook is that there will be a large attendance tonight.

The change from Hargett street station to the union depot for the starting point of the fair ground train is a very convenient one.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Confederate veterans' association will be held tomorrow at noon in the grand stand at the fair grounds.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina agricultural society will be held in the hall of the house of representatives tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

Prepare for an evening of unbounded pleasure by securing your seats at Metropolitan hall tonight to witness that great melo-drama The Convict's Daughter.

"She Stoops to Conquer," the most refined comedy. In this play Miss Ford, Miss Albert and Miss Knowles are charming, graceful and beautiful. Seats $1 at MacRae's.

The different towns in the state are well represented by police-men. They all appear to bear themselves with marked dignity and are most gentlemanly in their bearing.

Prayer and song service Thursday and Friday night at the Christian church. All who sing are kindly invited to attend and also requested to bring Gospel Hymns Nos 1, 2, 3 and 4, at 7:30.

The proprietor and employees of the VISITOR, in common with their fellow citizens generally, desire to attend the fair tomorrow. In consequence of this there will be no issue of the paper.

There is but one John Reddin's Company and it appears tonight at Metropolitan hall in "The Convict's Daughter." Between the acts of this great play there will appear some great specialties.

For Sale.

Friday, at 12 o'clock noon, at Stronach's auction house, will sell one extension top phonon, nearly as good as new. The carriage can be seen at J W Evans' factory any time before the sale. J W EVANS.
