NEW ACADEMY MUSIC TONIGHT—WILFRED CLARKE IN SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER.

The prevalent notion is that literary quality is fatal to the modern setting drama. This notion has become one of the critical canons, but like many other critical canons, it is nonsense. Of course, fine literary quality with its self restraint does not lend itself to the society of buffoonery and spectacle, and where these things are required by the audience literary quality is an intrusive obstacle to success.

Mr J A Shell, a farmer of Senoia, Ga, has demonstrated the truth of the old saying that "you do not need the whole earth for a farm." On a twenty acre farm Mr Shell supports a family of 11 persons in much better style than the average farmer supports his family. He rarely fails to make a bale of cotton and from 20 to 40 bushels of corn per acre. This land has been brought to a high state of cultivation. Though the farm is small, he pursues the plan of rotation, thus keeping the land in good heart. Even at this season of the year he has plenty of old corn, fodder and wheat.

Mr and Mrs Gladstone have been married 54 years. The daily four horse stage between Princeton and Fleetwood, Pa., is driven by Miss Date Levin, a girl of 15.

General Menotti Garibaldi, son of the Italian patriot, and his wife celebrated their silver wedding recently in Rome.

The namesake of Molly Stark of Revolutionary fame resides in San Jose, Cal., a girl of 13 in the sixth in direct descent from General John Stark.

The king of Siam has 800 wives and 37 children, and his hat of state is so loaded with precious stones that it weighs 37 pounds. His royal robe is worth $1,000,000.

Harvey Albee, who was scarcely 31 years old when first elected constable of an Illinois township, is still in the office, having since had no opposition to re election, at the age of 73 years.

The father of Sir Arthur Hamilton Gordon, who has been made an English peer, was married twice—first to a daughter and secondly to a widowed daughter in law of the first Marquis of Aberdeen.

Thomas A Edison comes of a long lived stock. His father is still alive at Port Huron, Mich., at the age of 90. His grandfather was 173 years old, and two of his aunts lived to be 98 and 99 respectively.

The Shah of Persia does not possess a railroad train of any kind. He goes about Persia in carriages or on horseback, and although 64 years of age is still one of the best horsemen in the country.

A REMEDY FOR LYNCHING.

The people of Chester county, S C, have laid before the grand jury for their endorsement a resolution embodying a suggestion of a specific mode of trial for persons accused of crime for the punishment of which lynching is resorted to. The essential points of the plan are a speedy trial and prompt execution on conviction.

MORE HOG AND HOMINY.

In his appeal to the cotton planters to hold on to their cotton President Evans, of the Farmers' State Alliance of South Carolina, drops into their ears a few intelligent suggestions. He tells these cotton planters that they buy too much; they should always be sellers. 'Prepare to reduce the cotton acreage for next year,' he urges, 'and raise your corn, wheat and bacon at home.' We have been some months ahead of President Evans in this suggestion to the southern planters, and we therefore take pleasure in endorsing his able views. It is not often that we find ourselves in accord with the Alliance people, but when they preach more hog and hominy and less cotton for the south they are on the right track.

AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE.

The story is told of a well known lady in the suburbs whose favorite riding horse was taken sick. She called in a doctor, gave him medicine herself and, not content with leaving him to the groom, went to the stable at night and passed hours petting the animal in order to ease its dying hours. Finally, to save the carcass from the horror of the loneyard, she purchased a small lot in an isolated place and had her favorite buried there.—Philadelphia Times.

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price; and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for forty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hav, Florence Marryat, Anthony, Trollope, A Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail.
