

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1893.

NO. 1

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The fair is behind us.

Great arrangements are being made for the Maxton fair, to commence on the 25th inst.

Mr. W. W. Ashe has returned to the city from a very pleasant trip to the World's Fair.

The predictions are for a bad winter, but this is always the case. It may turn out different after all.

The ball was the closing event of the season. It was the great event of the season.

Attention is called to Messrs Snelling & Hicks' fresh stock of bird seed, etc.

Now bring in your advertisements for Christmas. The VISITOR is the best medium for city advertisements.

The outlook for the colored fair is said to be unusually good. The secretary is making unusual exertions.

The next show will be about the 15th of November at Metropolitan hall.

Special meeting of Wm G Hill Lodge No 218, A F and A M. tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All masons in good standing cordially invited to attend.

The new store of Miss Maggie Reese will soon be ready. It is on the north side of Fayetteville street, just north of the market.

There is very little of interest stirring in official circles at the capitol to day. All the officials are engaged with only routine business.

One of the signs of a hard winter is said to be that the hog's melt runs jagged instead of smooth. We suppose it is an unfailing sign.

After the fair comes the lull, but now is the time to advertise in the VISITOR for Christmas. No better medium in the state.

The latest West India storm gave us the go-by which is a matter of intense congratulation to our people generally.

The act of the board of charities in regard to the insane soldiers of the state, was a most commendable one. It is a measure that will be endorsed by the people of the state.

It is the current report here to day that a compromise is in sight on the money question. If this be so, it will be a consummation which all our people will delight to hear.

Mr. Robert Young, of Concord, has been appointed Assistant Surgeon General of the State Guard, in place of Dr. Hodges, who lately removed to Virginia.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. C. A. Sherwood & Co. These gentlemen have just received the newest line of Columbian coats, reefer jackets, etc., which they are offering in the newest designs, ect. Give them a call.

There is very little of importance on the docket of the Superior court. Many of the cases are old ones that have been fought forward. No doubt most of them will be continued.

J F Edwards, Esq., of Oxford, has been spending a few days here visiting relatives. For several years prior to 1869 he lived in Raleigh, and since that time he has been one of the live business men of Oxford.

There is much to do by our chamber of commerce for the advancement of the interest of the city. There seems to be very little interest taken in the matter however. Cannot we have more frequent meetings, and more substantial business done?

Mr Weston R Gales preached two most earnest and impressive sermons at the Christian church yesterday. He will conduct Bible study each afternoon this week at 4 o'clock (only hour long) and preach at 7:30 p

All cordially invited to attend, and Christian workers earnestly requested to co-operate in all services.
