VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1893.

NO. 3

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The cold wave will pass us by. Mrs. J T Womble, of Durham, is in the city.

And now Durham has a chicken with three legs and five feet.

Durham boasts of a first class steam laundry.

Picking cotton season is keeping many country people from the city.

Col James E Boyd, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The new road machine for the city is expected to arrive in about a week.

Will not the steam roller be the means of lessening the force of street hands? It would seem so.

The Catholic population of Durham have in contemplation a house of worship.

A considerable number of prominent lawyers are in the city, in attendance on the Supreme court.

Miss Minnie Fulley left this morning on a visit to relatives and friends near Cary.

Advertising is to business what an engine is to a train. It carries it along and makes things hum.

The memorial of Guilford Battle Ground now being gotten up by Judge Schenck will soon be ready for issue.

Up to this time there have been four hundred applications for admission to the Industrial school at Greensboro.

Don't forget the great annual sale of fine blooded horses to take place on Wednesday and Thursday, November, 8th and 9th.

The A. and M. college for the colored people will open on November 6th. All the improvements have been completed and the furniture received.

One of the most interesting foot ball games of this season will be played between the Trinity and University teams next Saturday afternoon, at Trinity Park.

The remains of the late Mr Jno A Norwood were conveyed to Little River township this morning for interment. They were accompanied by Chief of Police Heart and four policemen.

The Websterian Literary Society of Guilford College will give its 6th annual entertainment on the evening of October 28th, at 7 o'clock. Public cordially invited. Old students will be specially welcomed.

The pamphlet gotten out by Capt Williamson for his annual sale should be in the hands of every farmer in North Carolina, so that the stock of thoroughbreds in our State should be widely dispersed.

The acceptance of Mr Julian S Coar, of the presidency of the Board of Agriculture, is very gratifying to the people of North Carolina. His dispatch to Secretary Ayer is full of enthusiasm and shows that the success of the next State fair is already assured.

We regret very much to learn that the Rev W. F. Wilhelm, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Hillsboro, died at his home in that town last night. Several years ago Mr. Wilhelm most acceptably conducted a series of meetings in the First Presbyterian church of this city and greatly endeared himself to the members of that church and also of other churches in our city. He was a most earnest and faithful preacher and has no doubt gone to a glorious reward.

Revival Services.

Last night there was a tremendous crowd in attendance at the Christian church. Many had to leave being unable to gain admittance. Mr Gale preached a most eloquent and impressive sermon. Tonight services will be conducted at Metropolitan hall. Go early and secure seats.

Opinions.

The following opinions from this district were handed down in the Supreme court yesterday:

Syme vs Railroad, from Wake—affirmed.

Cheatham vs Young, from Vance—affirmed.

Kelly vs Fleming, from Vance—affirmed.

Jeter vs Burgwyn, from Vance—affirmed.

Lane vs Rogers, from Wake—affirmed.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Thos. Thom's, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Enges, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in cough and colds. Free trial bottle at John Y. MacRae's drugstore. Regular size 70c and $1.
