

The Daily Evening Visitor

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26. 1893.

NO. 4

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

We were glad to meet Mr Levi M Scott, of Greensboro, in the city.

J S Manning, Esq. of Durham, is at the Yarboro.

Three more veterans have recently been added to the Soldiers Home.

Thanksgiving Day this year will fall on the last day of November.

The cold wave give us only a side show this time for which we should be thankful.

The Academy of Music looked splendid last night in its garb of native electricity.

Henry Blount Esq., has been selected to deliver the address to the Teachers' Assembly in June.

Appeals from the sixth judicial district will be taken up next Tuesday in the Supreme court.

Col L O Edwards of Granville is in the city, attending the Supreme Court.

The alarm of fire about 8 o'clock this afternoon turned out to be false. No fire could be found.

As birds are said to be rather scarce on account of the hard weather last winter, our hunters should be cautious not to be rash.

There are now nearly two hundred students at Wake Forest College. Athletics are receiving much attention.

Work on the new hotel at Southern Pines has commenced. It is estimated to cost $175,000 and will be one of the handsomest in the State.

Special convocation of Raleigh Chapter, No 10, R A M, this evening at 7.30 o'clock in Masonic hall. Work in Mark Masters degree. Visiting companions invited to attend.

Trinity College is making a fine showing this year. It has a faculty of fifteen members and 165 students. The financial condition of the college is good.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has just received $1,000 through Dr J L M Curry for the normal department of the Industrial School at Greensboro.

The condition of Mr Joo D Cameron is now considered as almost hopeless. This will cause deep regret in all sections of the State.

At the gospel service tonight at Metropolitan hall by Mr Gales, the pastor of the Church an earnest wisher all who attend to bring their gospel hymn books with them and all join heartily in the song service. Service at 7:30 p m.

We hope the Monument Association will at their meeting to's afternoon, come to some definite understanding relative to the design for the Confederate Monument and that the work will be speedily pushed.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Lyon Racket Store. This establishment is offering unusual attractions in everything in their line of business at prices that cannot fail to suit the public. Call at once.

Much interest is being manifested in the game of foot ball to be played between the University and Trinity teams on Saturday next. Large crowds are expected from the surrounding country. Reduced rates on the railroads.

The Supreme Court is hearing argument in an interesting case that of the State against W P Rollins, of Durham. Rollins was a police officer and last year he shot a white man from the country. It seems that the latter was arrested for disorderly conduct at a house of ill fame, and that while the officer was taking him to the station house the man's brother and a friend interfered. A fight followed, in which Rollins killed the countryman. In the Superior Court the plea was self defense, but Rollins was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary.

The official residence of Bishop Obeshire will be at Charlotte.

Mr Jno O Burton, of the Seaboard Air Line, was in the city yesterday.

The Governor has received a petition from the commissioners of Northampton county, for a special court.

The contract for heating the Agricultural building will be awarded in a few days.

The receipts of cotton today run up to about five hundred bales. Prices are steady.

It is estimated that about 430 people from Raleigh visited the World's Fair.

A new Third party paper to be called "The Solid South" has just been started at Fayetteville.

The Presbyterian synod will meet in Tarboro the last day of this month. There are 141 ministers and 311 ruling elders.

The N C Conference of the M E church south, convenes in Wilmington Dec 6th. The Western Conference convenes in Charlotte, Nov 26th.

The Railroad Commission is not in session this week. Since its organization 220 cases of complaints have been entered.
