

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1893.

NO. 5

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Considerable cotton came in today. Prices are steady.

Mr Fuller Reid, of Trinity College, is in the city.

Maj W A Guthrie, of Durham, is in the city.

Our market is now well supplied with everything in season.

Early last Monday morning there was a luna rainbow. Who saw it?

The boys are cleaning up their guns getting ready for the opening of the bird season.

We regret to announce the continued illness of Rev Dr Daniel, of the First Presbyterian church.

A new and improved dairy is being erected at the A and M College for the use of the students in their work.

The circuses are heading toward Charlotte. There seems to be none coming this way.

The stoppage of our street cars means depreciation of real estate, both to the owners and the assessment for taxes. It is a great pity.

The town commissioners of Salem have passed an ordinance to discharge all of its officers who refuse to pay their debts.

The Governor today ordered a special term of Northampton court for December 4th, Judge Spier Whitaker to preside.

James Young, Jr, one of the most gifted tragedians in the country, will appear at Metropolitan hall November 15th and 16th.

The Duke Cigarette Company of Durham last week shipped 7,000,000 cigarettes to one man in Tokio, Japan.

The Governor today issued a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Ed Tyson, a negro for the murder of a white man in Richmond county some time since.

A suit is pending in the Superior court of this county brought by Mr Haynes, a deaf mute gentleman, against the Raleigh Gas and Electric Light Company for the death of his son. The damages are fixed at $10,000.

Gov Carr and Mr B F Montague, one of the trustees, have made a complete inspection of the white and colored institutions for the Deaf and Blind. Everything was found in the most satisfactory condition.

Under the careful supervision of the keeper of the market, the most perfect system is maintained. Ladies can visit the market at all times with the assurance that the best order prevails.

The railway commission has decided that where a ticket known as a special rate summer ticket is sold, say from Raleigh to Morehead City and return, there are no stop over privileges and it is good only for a continuous passage.

The Epworth Reception of Edenton Street Methodist church tonight promises to be a most pleasant affair. It will be held in the Sunday school room—will be entirely informal, and visitors can come and go at their pleasure. Special invitation is extended to all Methodists visiting in the city, and any one who is interested in church work of the league will be cordially welcomed.

The World's Columbian Exposition by Trumbull White and Wm Igleheart, now being introduced in Raleigh is a very fine work indeed, and has been endorsed by Gov Carr, as a faithful portrayal of the great exposition. This is the only work endorsed by the Director General, Davis and Mrs Potter Palmer president of the board of lady managers. Those desiring to see the work, can send postal to this office or to J P H 48 care Visitor.

Died.
On Thursday last, at 6:10 o'clock near Oxford, Mrs Luetta Fowler, aged 24 years. She was the wife of Mr W N Fowler, who, with one child survive her. She was a member of the Baptist Tabernacle church.

Much interest is being centered in the colored industrial fair, and the outlook for its success is good.

Endowments Investment.
One of the best presents that you can make your child for Christmas, New Year or Birthday, is an eight year endowment certificate in the Mechanics' and Investors' Union of Raleigh.

A certificate for $500 with insurance benefit will cost only eleven cents per day. It can be issued to either parent as trustee, and should death occur to the trustee, no further payment is required.

A Savings Bank certificate of this kind, with monthly payments, is one of the best financial educators for a child, and it can be made to provide the means for a college education. Try it. For further particulars address George Allen, secretary, Raleigh, N C.

Remnants and Remnants.
Everything in short ends to be found in a dry goods store can be seen on our remnant counter, and this is the place for ladies to secure genuine bargains. To sell this lot of remnants out quickly we have made the price on them way below original cost. A few moments spent at this counter and a very small amount of money will prove profitable to you.
D T Swindell.

Telegraph News.
We received a telegram today from our toy factory, located at Patterson, New Jersey, stating that a part of the goods would be ready for shipment next week. The people of Raleigh and surrounding country have seen a so-called stock of toys, but nothing has ever been shown in the toy line that will at all compare with the mammoth stock we will have this season. In quality, quantity and variety it will cause every one to look on in wonder; in moderation of price we are sure it will cause every one to buy with lightning-like rapidity.
D T Swindell.
