RALEIGH, MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1893.

NO. 7

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Nice, bracing weather.

There is nothing new at the capitol today.

Everything quiet at the mayor's office today.

The cotton receipts today have been on the average, but there have been no advance on prices.

Everybody is waiting for the action of the Senate on the pecuniary question now pending in the Senate. A vote was confidentially expected today.

Ex Gov. Jarvis and Rev J A Brock, et al will deliver addresses at the colored fair on Thursday next. There should be a large turnout to hear them.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr Charles Bretch. He has a most complete manufacture of crackers. We will give a more extended notice in the future.

Litchford Encampment No 26, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the royal purple degree. Every member requested to be present. Visiting patriars cordially invited.

Next Sunday the drug stores of Raleigh will commence closing on Sundays between the hours of 11 a m and 3 p m. This is in accordance with the resolutions adopted by the Raleigh druggists association.

The members of the Women's Missionary and Bright Jewels of Central and Edenton street church are requested to meet in Edenton Street Sunday school room tomorrow, to attend in a body the funeral of Mrs W S Black. Notice for hour of funeral in the mornings' paper.

All in want of first class clothing should call on the Rosenthal Clothing Company opposite the post office on Fayetteville street. The distinguished clothier, Mr David Rosenthal stands ready to wait on you. This is a sufficient guarantee that you will be treated all right.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of Messrs S & D Berwanger in this issue. These gentlemen enjoy a reputation second to none in the State. In fact their reputation has extended even beyond our State lines. In all that pertains to the clothing line they are well known throughout the country. There is no place at which the stranger or citizen can be more promptly furnished at better prices. You will receive good attention. The most accommodating clerks will wait on you. Call and see them. No house in this city can offer such inducements.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs B R Jolly took place yesterday afternoon from the residence at 8 o'clock. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev J N Cole. The following were the pallbearers: Messrs T W Blake, W H Hughes, Skidmore Cheek, Dr J H Crawford, Geo H Glass and J A Bragassa.

Gales Meeting Sunday 4 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon 4 o'clock the New Academy of Music presented a lively scene. Men coming from all directions to hear the gospel preached by Evangelist Gales. It was estimated that there were at least 600 men present. An orchestra of five pieces added much to the music. The singing was excellent. There were several decisions for Christ. Last night the hall was packed to its utmost capacity about 1250 people were present and many turned from the doors. He will preach again tonight at Metropolitan hall.

Itching, burning, scaly and crusty scalps of infants cleansed and healed, and quiet sleep restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap. Sold at John Y. MacRae's Drug Store.

Dress Goods and Millinery.

Our trade in the two above mentioned departments this season has been simply immense. People have begun to find out that there is no law compelling them to buy goods from any one place when they can go to Swindell's and get the same goods at a price much lower. Owing to the increased activity in these departments we have spared no pains to keep them well supplied with the very latest novelties that the French and American markets afford. Hoping to receive a continuation of the patronage of the ladies.

I am respectfully,
D T Swindell.

Ladies' and Children's Wraps.

We have changed our Wrap Department from the 1st to 2d floor. Here we have more space and perfect light. Our garments were selected to suit home trade. Styles and prices absolutely correct.

We call special attention to our showing in children's serviceable wraps, at very moderate prices.

This department was never so attractive as it is this season.

Endowments Investment.

One of the best presents that you can make your child for Christmas, New Year or Birthday, is an eight year endowment certificate in the Mechanics' and Investors' Union of Raleigh.

A certificate for $500 with insurance benefit will cost only eleven cents per day. It can be issued to either parent as trustee, and should death occur to the trustee, no further payment is required.

A Savings Bank certificate of this kind, with monthly payments, is one of the best financial educators for a child, and it can be made to provide the means for a college education. Try it. For further particulars address George Allen, secretary, Raleigh, N C.
