CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals[Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Read the advertisement of the Lyon Racket Store.

Read the attractive advertisement of Messrs Snellings & Hicks. Their inducements cannot be surpassed.

Mrs. Harriet Andrews has returned to the city from a visit of several weeks to her daughters in Washington city.

Another large crowd attended the religious exercises at Metropolitan Hall last night. Services at the Hall again to night.

Why don't the Court house officers kick against the naked woman on top of the building. It is shameful to look at the poor girl these cold mornings.

James Young, Jr, the young tragedian, who appears at Metropolitan Hall November 15 and 16 is one of the brightest rising stars in the legitimate drama.

There was quite a large attendance at the Colored Fair to day. A larger crowd is expected tomorrow. Many additions were made this morning to the exhibits.

Don't fail to bear in mind the sale of valuable real estate of the Smith-Morehead Property will take place next Monday the 6th, inst. It will afford a splendid chance for investment.

Squire Roberts' court was occupied to-day in hearing a case against a colored woman charged with being a common scold and brother. There are many such who should be looked after.

Who will be the new police officer. He should be a Raleigh man, well acquainted with the people and the streets. One who has lived in the city for time enough to at least paid a year or two taxes.

Messrs S. & D. Berwanger are showing a most beautiful and select line of men's and boys gloves, woven or worked. There is no such of the kind in the city that can equal them. Call at once, so that you can have the pick.

Possums are ripe to-day in Wake County, and restrictions regarding the killing of partridges, quails, larks, robins, mocking birds and wild turkeys ceased yesterday. Many a gun was cleaned up last night, and no doubt the slaughter of birds will be great to day.

Regular Weekly Prayer services at Central M. E. Church to night at 7.30. Immediately after the prayer service there will be a social service of 15 or 20 minutes in which every member is earnestly requested to participate. Let all come and have a few moments of pleasant and social converse.

We have had the pleasure of listening to some tall stories told by soldiers in the late war which our stenographer took down and at our leisure we will write them out for publication, one about a frozen Yankee whom members of Manly's battery shot at one morning. Look out for this series of thrilling stories.

The State and County taxes are being paid very slowly. Tax payers should bear in mind that the sheriff must settle the State taxes December 1st and come in and settle their part at once. The office will no doubt be kept open certain nights during this month for the benefit of the working class.

It is carelessness of our people more than any thing else which occasions the repeated stealing of valuables from hall ways. All doors should be locked which afford ingress to dwelling houses. Once the tramping sneak thief learns of such carelessness as many of our people indulge in he spreads the news all along the line, makes a haul himself and passes on to other fields. Be careful and you will not become a victim.

Mrs M W Ransom is at the Yarboro. The attendance on the colored fair increased considerably to day.

And now the talk is that Senator Ransom is to be tendered the vacant Circuit Court Judgeship.

We acknowledge the receipt of a ticket to the Rocky Mount Fair which opens on the 8th inst.

Sheriff Page calls upon all tax payers to come forward and settle their taxes at once, as the county and graded school need money, and must have it.

Plenty of fine Norfolk oysters at A Dughi's this evening.
