

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1893.

NO. 10

CITY IN BRIEF.

Localities Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

The case of Josiah Turner vs Holden has been continued.

The main event of today at the colored fair was the address of ex-Gov Jarvis.

The receipts of cotton today have been considerable. There is no advance in prices.

Ruth Lodge I O O F., will meet tomorrow night at usual time. Full attendance desired.

Patronize the ladies entertainment at the rooms of the Y M C A. It is a most deserving purpose.

The Mecklenburg County Alliance has endorsed Senator Vance as the "greatest living American."

Regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen tomorrow night. Among other business a policeman to be elected.

Gov Carr loses no opportunity to mix with his fellow citizens on all appropriate occasions. This is just as it should be.

The collections of the Durham stamp office last month amounted to $41,997.68. There were 33,840,000 cigarettes exported.

Regular meeting of Raleigh Commandery No 4, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

An entertainment will be given by the Y M C A., at the A and M College tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

How would a steam plant work to succeed the electric cars? We hear that it works like a charm on some of the lines in Atlanta.

The date for the synod of North Carolina, to be held at Tarboro, has been changed from October 31st to 27th, to October 27th to 31st.

Attention is called to the notice of W B Hutchings, city tax collector. The list is now complete and Collector Hutchings is ready to write receipts.

Miss Maggie Ferrell left last Monday afternoon to take charge of the music department of Patrick Henry academy, in Durham county, near Chapel Hill.

Relics for the antiquity society are coming in rather slow. We still think that the suggestion of the VISITOR to appoint a state agent to gather them up, a good one.

A collection will be taken up next Sunday at the Church of the Good Shepherd, for the benefit of the Brunswick sufferers. We trust there will be a most generous response.

The motion docket for October term Wake Superior court will be called peremptorily on Saturday morning November 4. The members of the bar will please attend promptly at 9:30.

Much of the North Carolina exhibits at the World's Fair should be shipped back to the State and placed in our museum. We suppose this course will be adopted as far as practicable.

The revival services at Metropolitan hall last night were very largely attended and there was great interest manifested. There were several conversions. The ministrations of Mr Gales have been productive of great good in our community.

Rev Dr H M Tupper has returned to the city from Massachusetts where he has been most of the past summer. We regret to state that he is still quite feeble suffering from the effects of the amputation of a leg.

It seems to be highly important if North Carolina desires to secure the vacant Circuit Court judgeship that there should be concert of action among our delegation in Washington and the public men of the state generally. A division of sentiment, of course, means certain defeat.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, warmer in the interior Friday a m.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Friday: Fair weather, warmer, southwest winds.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m. today:

Maximum temperature, 69; minimum temperature 37; rainfall 0.

The following is the synopsis of the weather:

The storm has moved eastward north of the lake region, and the warm wave occupies the Ohio and lower Mississippi valleys and will spread over North Carolina today and tomorrow.

An extensive cold wave has appeared in the extreme northwest with snow at St Paul, Minn.

The weather continues fair in the Atlantic and Gulf States.

Lost, between Edwards & Broughton's and 418 North Dawson street, a gold cuff button. Return to this office.

Plenty of fine Norfolk oysters at Dughli's any hour. Free delivery.

Next week Dughli will have plenty of California pears, peaches and grapes.

Special Dress Goods Sale.

Next Wednesday we will give our patrons an opportunity to get a real good and substantial bargain in a dress. We have one hundred dress patterns, assorted colors, all dress suitings, 36 inches wide, and we are going to sell the choice at 3c a yard. Next Wednesday, 3 yards in each piece. 2c4c for an all wool dress at D T Swindell's.

Ladies' Cloaks and Wraps.

Ladies, it will pay you handsomely to see the extensive line of coats, jackets and wraps at Swindell's. We are fully convinced no one can show so nice stock at so low price as we are now showing. All we want is for you to be a competent judge of what we show. Ignorance of the values will prevent you from buying if we can suit you in color. I am respectfully,
D T Swindell.

Fine China Display.

When we make a new departure we do so to win. So in our new complete china department we have determined to make a showing that would please the daintiest taste, and in this department we don't charge anything for showing you the goods, and if you discover anything lacking to make a complete china department we will thank you for the information. We are showing china from Germany, France, Austria and England. You know under the present laws every piece of goods has to be marked in the name of the country it is made in, so you can't be deceived.
D T Swindell.

On Friday, Nov 3d, we will offer our customers a 16 per cent gift by selling 50c Dress Goods for 43c and all 25c Dress Goods at 21c a yard. This is a clear gift of 16 per cent and the sale will commence at 8 o'clock that day. Cash is our terms.
