

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1893.

NO. 14

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

This weather savors strongly of snow.

The weather begins to look like blizzards.

The Superior court will wind up this week.

We learn that Mr. A. Dughi sold and sent out last night 117 fries.

This is a gloomy day for the elections, but it may turn out all right.

Mr Meyer Frank, dealer in clothing in Wilmington, made an assignment yesterday.

Much anxiety is felt among politicians over the elections in different States today.

Thieves are beginning their winter operations on the suburbs. Shot guns should be in order.

The Guilford boys played the Charlotte football team yesterday and the score stood 13 to 11 in favor of the latter.

The complimentary german to Mr and Mrs W B Grimes will be given tonight. Dancing commences at 9 o'clock.

The Wake Forest football team defeated the University of Tennessee yesterday by a score of sixty-four to nothing.

It was Mr Frank Stronach and not Mr A B Stronach who bid off lot No 19 at the real estate sale of the Morehead property yesterday.

There are several northern gentlemen in the city looking around. They express themselves highly pleased with Raleigh and its surroundings.

There is an evident tendency upward in the real estate market. This was shown by the increase of bids upon the Morehead property yesterday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League, No. 24, will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) night immediately after prayer services. Full attendance is desired.

Christmas will be on us now in a hurry. All who want to sell goods should consult printers ink. There is nothing like it, and there is no better medium than the VISITOR.

There will be a special convocation of Raleigh Chapter No 10, E A M., th's evening at 7:30 o'clock for work in Most Excellent Masters degree. Visiting companions invited to attend.

The long looked for increase in the price of cotton does not seem to put in its appearance. Perhaps it may come along after the effects of the repeal bill become more fully developed.

There were some forty professions of religion in the recent meeting at the Baptist church at Fayetteville, conducted by Rev J H Edwards, pastor, assisted by Rev T J Taylor of Warrenton.

The Cosmopolitan for November is on our table. As usual, this number is filled to the brim with the very best. It is one of the very best publications of its kind in the United States. Send and get a copy, 12 1/2 cents.

Everybody is talking about the great horse sale to take place tomorrow and Thursday. It will be one of the best opportunities ever offered for our farmers to secure first class blooded stock. It should not be overlooked by no means.

Since the declination of Senator Ransom of the Circuit Court judgeship the appointment seems to be at sea. Let us hope that the president may cast his eyes favorably towards our state. It is seldom that North Carolina gets her deserts in such matters, but if an earnest effort is made there is no telling what may happen. By the way, it would seem that Senator Ransom would have a right smart showing in designating the lucky individual.

Personal Mention.

Dr H M Tupper continues quite ill. Mr. J. Bill, of this city is in Wilmington.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Black, of Oxford, is in the city.

Rev J J Ball, of Norfolk, Va., has begun a series of meetings in that city.

We learn that Mr A L Ferrall is quite sick at his residence on South Person street.

We are sorry to learn that Mr Wm Pell is sick again at his home on West Jones street.

Rev Dr Pritchard, of Charlotte, is conducting a protracted meeting in his church for the last week or too.

Rev. A. M. Sims, of the Baptist Tabernacle of this city, is giving general satisfaction to his people and the community. He is a fine preacher and well beliked by everybody.

We were pleased to see in the city today Mr. Geo. E. Leach, clerk to Congressman Bunn. He is here to spend the vacation of Congress and is warmly received by his friends. Mr. Leach brings the most encouraging outlook for the success of the Democratic party in the future. He thinks that all conflicting influences will soon be arranged.

Sale of Pineville Cotton Mills.

The Pineville Cotton Mills were sold today at noon. The sale was brought about by the creditors, the stockholders in the mills having failed to meet their obligations. The Pineville mills contains 85,000 spindles and cost $55,000. It is a new and finely equipped concern.

The factory was bought in by Mr. H. S. Chadwick, for Mr. S. A. Jenks, of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, for the sum of $37,000.—Charlotte News.

Cotton Crop.

Commissioner Robinson of the Agricultural Department, says the outlook is decidedly inferior to that of last year. The crop of 1892 did not amount to 6,500,000 bales, which, he says was his estimate. The present crop will not exceed the crop of 1892, and he thinks it will be less. If farmers will hold their cotton, unless something unforeseen should happen, it will sell before the season is over for at least ten cents a pound. Not only is the crop short, but the weather has been very unfavorable for gathering the cotton, and large quantities of it is still in the fields being wasted and injured.
