

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1893.

NO. 15

CITY IN BRIEF.

Locals Picked Up Here and There and Boiled Down.

Several tramps were on the suburbs last night.

It now looks like the golden weather is breaking up.

The mountain counties are endorsing Judge Avery for the vacant Circuit Court judgeship.

The complimentary dinner to Mr and Mrs Wm B Grimes last evening was largely attended.

The weather interferes somewhat with the cotton receipts which have been rather light today.

Collector Kope Elias has returned to Asheville and expresses himself as confident of confirmation.

A considerable number of gentlemen from a distance are here in attendance of the horse sale.

There is a perfect lull in business at the capitol. Nothing but the usual department routine work.

At our time of going to press there was no particular change in the condition of Mr A L Ferrell.

The Superior Court still hangs on and will probably find enough to do to fill out the third week.

We were unable to procure a list of the sales of horses for this afternoon's issue. The prices, we learn, were in the main satisfactory.

Richard 8d and Hamlet will be performed at Metropolitan Hall on the 15th and 16th inst. by Mr James Young, the young tragedian.

The regular monthly meeting of Epworth League, No 24, will be held tonight immediately after prayer services. Full attendance desired.

The Greensboro Fire Department boasts 106 men and the estimated value of property is $25,000. The cost of maintenance last year was $600.

When the new annex to the agricultural building is fully completed, it will be a vast convenience to the growing necessities of the department.

There has been quite a falling off lately in the penitentiary convicts. This would seem to indicate that crime is somewhat on the decrease in North Carolina.

Read and carefully consider the communication in today's paper in reference to the confederate monument. It is of great importance and well suggested.

Mr Jos E Robinson, editor of the Goldsboro Argus, is to wed Miss Ada Olingman Humphrey. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, Nov 15th, at 11:40 o'clock at Goldsboro.

The revenue officials are now applying themselves to a new branch of their business, the seizure of whiskey shipped on trains. Some of the liquor is shipped by licensed distillers and some by moonshiners, but is unstamped, of course. A good deal of this liquor is made in the 5th, and sent into this district.

We hear all kinds of rumors about the distribution of the street railway but nothing from which we can get any definite information. One rumor is to the effect that a prominent gentleman of means has in contemplation its purchase. Let us hope that some arrangement may be made for the early resumption of travel.

A Nice One.

A good joke is told by one of our prominent salesmen who recently spent a short while in New York. He said he happened one day to be on the Bowery and seeing rather a seedy looking individual asked him if he could tell where a certain theatre was. The fellow looked at him steadily for a moment and replied: "Do you take me for a bureau of information, sir? Our tarheel attempted to explain, saying that he meant no offense, whereupon the seedy individual replied: "That's enough; you can go long or else I will give you a kicking." Tarheel says he retreated in good style, not very seriously impressed with the politeness of Gotham.

The Horse Sale.

The great sale of about one hundred choicest breed of horses commenced today at 11:30 o'clock at Blakes stables on Morgan street and will be continued tomorrow. There is a large attendance of bidders representing some of the foremost farmers in the vicinity and some from distant parts of the State. There are also gentlemen here from other sections of the country. The bidding was spirited and prices ranged well from the start.
